Well, we are here in order to study: you, to listen to me and I to speak to you...

Certainly, to know how to listen is something very difficult. It is easier to know how to speak.

Commonly when we are listening, inside of us there is a translator: it is the "I," the Ego, the 'myself' that translates everything according to its own concepts, ideas, opinions, etc., etc., etc. Therefore, to know how to listen is not something very easy.

It is necessary to understand that within ourselves there is something that is not just the physical body. We have a body of flesh and bones, and that is obvious, everyone can accept that fact, but only a few can understand that we have a psychology that is feasible to modify. We have to understand this psychology, if we really want transformation. Those who accept the existence of an own psychology, obviously, begin to self-observe (themselves); when somebody self-observes (himself), it is a signal that he is trying to achieve a self-transformation (we need a self-transformation).

Life as it is, in reality is not very attractive. To be born, to grow up, to grow old and to die become something very boring. To work in order to exist and to exist in a miserable form is not worth it. Not only those that have money live in a miserable manner but as well those that do not. There are two ways to roll in the mud: some roll themselves in the mud of misery and others in the mud of wealth (all of that is disheartening!). Therefore, to live in that manner, to exist without a reason, not knowing why and what for, is something that does not have any importance.

What are we? What is the reason of our existence? What do we live for? So many problems and in the end, what? Each one of us is just a machine that transforms energies... It happens that the energies of the seven planets, the planetary energies of our solar system, cannot pass "right a way" into the planet, because our planet is different, it is a world governed by 48 laws, a completely different world than the other worlds of our solar system. Observing from this perspective, it is obvious that this solar system needs channels in order to allow the passing of the cosmic or universal energy directly to the inside of this planetary organism. It is not just to allow it to pass; it needs to be transformed through the channels themselves; only a transformed and adapted energy can be useful to the planet Earth.

Let us take into account that the Earth is a living organism that needs to exist, that needs cosmic energies in order to do so. As we need energies in order to exist, in the same way the Earth needs the energy to exist and live. However, the energies that the Earth receives for its existence, come from the other planets of the solar system. I repeat: because our planet is different from the other planets, the energy has to be transformed to be useful to feed the planet Earth, and this energy could not be transformed if there were no channels to allow this energy to pass through.

Fortunately, those channels do exist (they were made by the Sun) and are of the organic life, that as a thin skin was established in the terrestrial layer by the Logos. Therefore, the thin skin of organic life: vegetable, animal, human, is necessary to allow the energy to be transformed and to pass to the inside of the Earth. Only in that manner could the Earth exist: otherwise it could not exist as a living organism.

We, the human beings, are just simple machines in which cosmic energy has to pass. Each one of us receives certain charges of electricity and magnetism that are unconsciously transformed and retransmitted automatically to the inside of the Earth (that is the reason for our existence).

And how much bitterness to just let the Earth, this planet lives and moves around the Sun! We feel so great, when in reality we are just simple, small energy-transforming machines! And the reason our existence is just that: in order to allow this planet to exist, we have to have our small lives... Unhappy days: to work in order to eat, to exist just because of nature's economy. She does not care about our ideas nor our beliefs; all that she wants is to receive the necessary food, the energetic food that has to pass through our body. That is all!

And, how do we live? Yelling at home or in the streets, suffering under the weight of a tyrant in the factory or in the office, paying our taxes in order to exist as citizens, paying the rent, etc. Absolutely all of this just so that this planet can exist, can be part of the conjunct of worlds, to be alive.

So many mothers that suffer, so many teenagers that do not have enough money to live; there are some that do not even have milk to feed their babies. So many elders with their experiences of life, so many children that are beginning to receive snarls! And all of that so that this planet can exist.

This is a little hard, cruel, I would say pitiless. We are that and nothing else. If at least we could be human beings, we would be something, but we are not even that. We are poor intellectual animals, carrying the sadness of our existence: that is what we are! This could look very pessimistic.

We remember the famous parties and we think that life has its happy moments, but this is because we do not know what happiness really is. We confuse the moments of pleasure with authentic and legitimate happiness; obviously we are walking on an erroneous path.

And, what does remain after the pleasure? Only disillusion and deception! How many times have a man and a woman that think that they are in love get married and later realize that they were fascinated, as it was not love; they thought that it was love but it was not. It happens that love is confused with passion. Once the animal passion is satisfied, what remains in that couple is the loathing, the surfeit, the deception, and that is it. From there on, everything becomes a routine. They speak only of bank accounts, rent, "of the clothes that need to be washed, that we need breakfast on time to go to work..." Sometimes to take a walk in order to get an escape from the boredom or go to a party that ends up in a huge drunkenness.

And in that way life is passing to the moment that we become old. Once we are elders, we feel like veterans. We enjoy the calls of our grandchildren to be called "grandpa" and to tell the tales of our sad experiences of which we feel very proud (This is normal in life: "in my times, the president made this and that, etc."); to narrate our fights in the battles in which we participated, and possibly even documented with our wounds of war that make us feel proud... Just sadness! The usual conversations, "our brother has died," "our cousin lost his fortune" or "those times were better," etc. And in the end death comes... Unhappy life, and for that we have worked and suffered so much!

Fortunately, in the Logos, there exists something else. the Sun is compassionate. It is truth, he has humanity as simple small machines that help his creation (nature), but it is also true that he wants to create.

He does not create a nature, he does not create an organic life in a world that moves around the Sun just for diversion, without a logical reason. It would not be logical to have created this planet for nothing; to create something without a reason would be the absurd of the most absurd. I think that even you would not do it; you would not create an invention and suffer for it, spend a life for it and later destroy it. I believe that this creation has an objective.

He charges a price for the creation of the thin skin of organic life onto the face of the Earth, he wants to get something from it, he has an interest in it, and he has a reason: he wants to obtain a harvest of Solar Men... The idea is not bad, but it is difficult. It is an experiment (frightful for sure and really hard) in the test tube of nature. That is what he wants: To create Solar Men.

DIOGENES and his lamp, comes to my mind at this moment. One day he walked through the streets of Athens with a lamp in his hand, trying to find a man, and he could not find one. He looked in the houses, rooms, corridors, yards of the wise men... "What are you looking for, Diogenes?" -they said to him- "A man..!" "The streets, the public forums are full of men!" "Those are not men;" he answered, "they are beasts: they eat, sleep and live as beasts!" He visited the homes of scientists, artists, and everywhere he was doing the same. It is obvious that he was making more and more enemies as he was visiting the homes. Everybody was feeling very offended by Diogenes... And he had a reason: He did not find any! Many wanted to believe that he found one somewhere. The followers of Marat thought that he had found one in a cave, and that it was Marat. Absurd! The truth is that he did not find any. If Marat was a man, good for him, but to find a real man is really difficult.

Diogenes lived in a barrel and there he used to eat and sleep; he did not even have a house. Before he died, Diogenes was visited by Alexander the Great. The one that could put Europe and Asia under his rule. He even threw him out; a simple man like Diogenes, living in a barrel, threw out Alexander the Great. Being in agony he said, "Alexander, get out and leave me alone with my Sun" (that is to say, with his Inner God) and Alexander did not have any other choice than to just go away. A humble man like Diogenes, threw out Alexander the Great; that is not something that everybody can do, is it?

Well, the authentic men, in the most complete sense of the word, is very hard to find. Fortunately the Sun has deposited in the sexual glands the seed needed to create the Man. Those seeds could be developed if we cooperate with the Sun. Then, we no longer would be simple speaking machines, as we actually are. We would transform ourselves into real men, into kings of creation. To say that this humanity is made up by men, is an exaggeration. I understand that the man is the Lord, the King (this is what the Bible says), the king of creation, made to govern the animal and vegetable species, to govern the ocean, the air, and the fire. If one is not a king, then one is not a man.

Who of you can govern the elements? Who of you can provoke a storm? Who of you is able to destroy a fire? Who of you is able to activate the volcanoes of Earth or to make the world tremble, to produce an earthquake or to destroy it? If we are not lords of creation, then we are not men, because in the Bible it is written that man is the king of creation. Therefore, are we kings or not? If we are victims of circumstance, if an earthquake kills thousands people, as happened in Guatemala, in this month, (February 1976) then what do you think: victims of circumstances? Where are the men? If the elements can destroy us in the same manner as we destroy an anthill with our foot, then where are the men's qualities that we say we have?

Really, even if we presume we are men, we are in reality nothing more than a simple intellectual animal, sentenced to live the sadness of life. But there are seeds in our glands, yes, seeds that can transform us into men. Those seeds can germinate in ourselves if we cooperate with the Sun and its Solar Ideas. He has created this race not only to be useful to the economy of nature, but also with the clear intention of attaining a Harvest of Solar Men.

In the times of Abraham the prophet, the Sun got a beautiful harvest of Solar Men. During the first eight centuries of Christianity, another small harvest was reaped. In the Middle Ages a few more and actually, the last effort it has been working. However, because this perverse humanity of the twentieth century, has become an enemy of the solar ideas, terribly materialistic, mechanical and lunar one hundred per cent, now the Sun is making a last effort, it is trying to get a small harvest of Solar Men. Later, once the harvest is ready, it will destroy the race because it is not longer useful for its experiment.

What is this race useful for? There is already no reason for the existence of this race. It is not useful for its experiments; it is made up of people that have no interest in the solar ideas. This race thinks only of their bank accounts, of new cars, of the actresses in Hollywood; people that only want passionate, sexual pleasures, drugs. etc. Obviously they are not useful to the Sun's experiments. People like that have to be destroyed and that is what the Sun is going to do: destroy those people and create a new race, in new continents that will emerge from the bottom of the ocean.

Very soon, the actual continents will be at the bottom of the oceans. The palaces of governments, the municipal houses, the rich mansions will be the lairs for seals and fish. This is the reality! New lands will emerge from the oceans, in which obviously there will be new people, a special, different race that could be useful to the solar experiments.

That is the reality. I am saying this in anguishing times, in times where the people do not believe in the end of the world, in times in which the people say: "let us eat and drink, because tomorrow we will die," in times in which people are only concerned about their bank accounts, fashion, gossip, drugs or lewdness.

Therefore, I am talking about all of this with the intention of inviting you to reflect...

Is it possible for the germination of the solar seeds? Yes, they exist to enable the Man to be born inside of ourselves, in the same form as the butterfly is born inside of the chrysalis. But, first of all, it is necessary to have the Availability of the Man, if the Availability of the Man does not exist, the Man cannot be born inside of ourselves. The seeds are there but can be lost, and that is normal (they are seeds of very difficult germination). We need to develop those seeds; we could do so if we cooperate with the Sun.

In the SEX is the "secretum secretorum" of the Intimate Self-Realization of the Self. But we should not be scandalized at the Secretum Secretorum ...

When we think of sex, people only remember their vices, their lewdness, their dirty fornications and abominable adulteries.

Let us observe how the positive and negative poles in the chalice of a flower are connected in order to create. Let us observe the species that live and breathe under the rays of the Sun. For example, the swans with their beautiful plumage speak about love. The swan feeds itself with love; when one of the couple dies, the other one dies of sadness. There exists the "order of the Swans" in Europe and United States; the main reason for that order is the study of the Love.

Obviously, love flows in the Consciousness. It is a function of the Being; it is a cosmic and transcendental energy. Love exists when there is affinity of thoughts, affinity of feelings, identical mental concerns. Kiss itself, is the mystical communication of two souls, eager to express in a sensible form what they internally are living; the sexual act, is the crystallization of the love in the psychic-physiologic realism of our nature.

Let us observe an elder that falls in love: he rejuvenates, all his glands work in a better way and the energies that flow in his Consciousness revitalize those small laboratories called endocrine glands; then, they produce a larger flow, more power, more quantities of hormones. Those hormones invade the blood system and later there appears the process of reconstruction, of cellular revitalization. It is worthy to reflect upon Love itself, because sex and love are innerly connected, because I repeat, the sexual act is the crystallization of the love in the psychic-physiologic realism of our nature. How great is the love. Only the great souls can and know how to love! We should not confuse love with passion.

Therefore, thanks to love, to sex, to that extraordinary force that flows in everything, in what existed and in what will exist the creatures can reproduce themselves in a constant form, the flowers and fruits can exist on the face of Earth. So, to see sex with disgust, to believe that it is a taboo or a sin, or something to be ashamed of, is blasphemy, frankly.

It is like spitting in the sanctuary of the Third Logos. It is necessary to understand that we have to work, to work with the marvellous power of sex.

If because of the sexual forces of the Third logos, of which all of nature exists, if thanks to the sexual force we exist; then, it is indispensable to understand what that force is, in order not to profane it. It is necessary to know how to use it to transform ourselves radically.

Many times we have been given the key for transmutation:
Connection of the Lingam- Yoni without ejaculation of the Ens Seminis, because inside of the Ens Seminis exists the Ens Virtutis of the Fohat. That is the key. That is the secretum secretorum of the transmutation. (THE SAHAJA MAITHUNA).

I do not explain this in vulgar words, because sex itself is sacred and its key has to be thought with rectitude. If you understand it, do it, because that is fundamental. When one transmutes the Sacred Sperm into energy, one can create the Radical Transformation.

The wise Middle ages alchemists talked about the Mercury of the Secret Philosophy, and it by itself is the Metallic Soul of the Sacred Sperm. When the sperm, the Exiohehary is transmuted, when we do not commit the crime of spilling Hermes Trismegistus' glass (the three times great God Ibis of Toth), obviously mercury is made, the wise men's mercury that is just the creative energy that ascends to the brain.

However, that mercury has to pass through three clear stages before it can be useful, and that, it is known by the alchemists.

It is indispensable to know how to prepare the mercury. In the beginning the mercurial waters are black as coal, putrid, dirty.
Many alchemists lost their time because they never whitened the waters of their lives, and this is because they did not know how to refine the sacrament of Roma's Church. It is necessary to understand this sacrament. If you read the word Roma in inverse form (in Spanish), what does it say? Amor (love) no? If you change the syllables, instead of the word Roma appears Amor (love). The sacrament of the Church of Love has been profaned by many neophytes. They work coarsely, brutally, passionately, in the Forge of the Cyclops; they do not refine their work and the waters remain black. When the work begins to be refined, those waters become white, ineffable. Then we have the right to use the white tunic of Thoth, of chastity. Much later, when the waters become yellow. They can be fecundated by the Sulphur. Sulphur is fire, the fire contained in our creative organs, the fire that when it is mixed with mercury, with the sexual energy, rises victoriously through the ganglionic spinal chords to the brain; the ascension of the sacred fire is extraordinary.

The first center that awakens is the one of the Church of Coccyx or the Church of Ephesus and gives us the power over the earth's elements. The second center that awakens is at the level of the prostate and gives us the power over stormy waters of the ocean.
The third power that awakens is at the level of the navel and the power that is given to us is over fire. We can activate the volcanoes of the Earth. The fourth power that awakens is at the level of the heart and gives us the power to get in and out of our body voluntarily, or to put the body into Jinn's State (the power over the element of air).

The fifth center that awakens is in the creative larynx that lets us speak in synthesis and listen to the symphonies of the cosmos. The sixth power, is located between the eyebrows and give us divine clairvoyance, the faculty that lets us see the superior worlds. The seventh center that awakens is in the Pineal Gland, giving to us the "Diamond eye," the faculty to see in all the regions of infinite space. Mercury mixed with Sulphur opens all of that. When the mercury mixes with the Sulphur, with fire, it becomes as red as the purple.

Unfortunately, I repeat, many are those that remain stagnant because they do not refine the sacrament of Roma's Church.

The Sulphur that is left over, the mercury and even the sublimated salt that ascends mixed with the sulphur and the mercury, when crystallized in our cells, in our sympathetic nervous system, takes the marvellous and extraordinary form of the Astral body. This is a body that crystallizes within our organism, in the body's laboratory. One knows that one has an Astral body when one can work with it, when one can use it, as the hands, as the feet. With the Astral body, we can visit other planets in the solar system. With the Astral body, we can get into touch with the Thirty Aeons that emanated in the Dawn of Creation. With the Astral body we can get into touch with all those Deans, Archangels and Thrones that exist in the universe; with the Astral body we can travel to all the worlds of the galaxy, even to Sirius, the central capital around which the great Milky Way rotates.

Yes, it is forbidden, to go further than the Central Sun Sirius; I want you to know that Sirius is the fundamental center of the galaxy. All the constellations of the Milky Way, all the solar systems and even our solar system in which we live rotate around Sirius; he is the gravity center of all those worlds. That is why the initiate, the one that has an Astral body, only is allowed to go to Sirius. To go further than Sirius is forbidden, because further than Sirius there are other galaxies with different laws that one does not understand. Myself, with my sidereal vehicle, with the Eidolon as we would say in Hight Magic, have tried to pass further than Sirius. I have been taken back to Sirius, because it is forbidden to go further than the Central Sun Sirius.

I know that there are other galaxies much further, galaxies with laws that we do not understand. There are also anti-galaxies, anti-matter, anti-worlds, anti-suns, anti-stars, anti-atoms. Galaxies, for example, of anti-matter that to us are incomprehensible. Even wise men such as Einstein, would result to be absolutely ignorants in Physics or Mathematics if they were taken to live in a galaxy of anti-matter where the electric charges are inverted. How could we understand a star with inverted charges, made with anti-matter? It is not possible to understand it, it does not exist in our texts of the physics.

Now, let us think what it means to pass further than Sirius. To manage laws that we do not know that we have not studied in our galaxy. We would be practically defenceless; we would be like wood moved by the stormy seas, even though, we had an Astral body, we would not be more than a miserable piece of wood. In that form is the infinite. How could we communicate with the people that have bodies of anti-matter, that have inverted charges, that have concepts that belong to dimensions that we do not know? Impossible. We would not understand anything!

Therefore, it is worth having an Astral body; it is worth it to know other regions of space, but we could never pass with that body further than Sirius.

Once we have created that body, it is also indispensable to form the Mental body if we want to be men, men with an individual mind, because today we do not have an individual mind, we have many minds. If we think that inside of us we have the Ego, the myself of the experimental psychology, and that it exists in a pluralized form, undoubtedly each one of those elements has its own mind. Inside ourselves, there are many minds; each mind has its own ideas and criterions. The "I" of anger has its own justifications, has its own logic with which it can argue or defend itself. It can perfectly defend itself in front of a court using a surprising intelligence, and could say: "I had reason, I killed that man because he made such and such mistakes." The "I" of lewdness also has its own logic; it could present itself in front of superior courts and with texts of psychology in hand, could self-defend itself. It has many arguments. It could say that its lust "is a natural function of the human being," that "all what exists has to be developed sexually," to say "what I was doing had been developed inside of the erotic function," to explain that "lewdness is natural because of the existence of Eros within ourselves;" it could make a physiological exposition in front of a class. It could draw on the blackboard all the physiology of Eros and the functions of ovaries and testicles, and amaze everyone. Each one of the "I's" that we have inside, has its own logic, has its own mind, and has its reasoning. It is interesting to know that each mind that we carry inside discusses with another, (the different minds that we carry clash with one another). Then, what? We have many minds and that is well known to everyone.

We need to create an individual mind, but this would not be possible if we did not first transmute our sacred sperm into energy. Obviously, when transmutation of the Mercury is made, and it is with that mercury of the wise men that we can crystallize inside of ourselves, to organize and to create the individual mind. When somebody has an individual Mental body, he can apprehend, capture and assimilate all the science of the universe. He can also use the mental vehicle to travel through the sacred space. With the individual mind it is possible to penetrate into the Devachan, into the Superior Mental Region of the cosmos and nature. The individual mind is splendid, marvellous.

People are victims of circumstance, people are moved by circumstances, they depend on the Law of Accidents (we can see this daily). One could not really learn how to direct the circumstances of life, if before one had not created the body of Conscious Will. When one forms that body, obviously one is no longer a victim of the circumstances. One can direct the circumstances intentionally, one is the owner and the lord. This body can only be formed with the mercury of the wise men, the result of the transformation or transmutation of the creative energy. Once with the Astral, Mental and Causal bodies, and having a splendid physical body, we can receive our psychic and spiritual principles, we become Real Men, Solar Men.

The Causal body is the last vehicle to be created. I could say to you that the Causal man [woman] is the authentic man. In the world of the natural causes we find the causal man.

There we see him working for humanity. The causal men are the authentic BODDHISATTWAS in the most transcendental sense of the word; Bodddhisattwas that work under the direction of the father that is in secret. Each one obeys his father, because there are as many fathers in the sky as men on the Earth (each one of us has his father that is in secret). The causal man moves under the direction of the father and lives in the world of natural causes (he is the real man).

The causal man, the real man, the man in the greater sense of the word is found in the world of natural causes; in the region where the symphonies of the cosmos can be heard. It is in this region where one can listen to the melodies of universal life. It is in this region in which we find Karma; it is here where the Lords of the Law work.

The causal man can absorb his Astral and Mental vehicles and live in that region. From there he projects himself to the Regions of the Cosmic Mind and its profundities, or to the Regions of the Astral World, in order to appear in the physical world.

In the name of the truth, I would have to say to you that in order to be with you here, to talk with you, I need to project myself from the Causal World, because I have my gravity center in the world of the natural causes. From there I project myself to the mental, then to the astral and finally making great efforts I come to the physical dimension to speak with you. I am speaking with you by concentration because my gravity center is in the Causal. I am a man of the Causal World, and if I say something, if I explain something; it is because of an order. Because I have been commanded to give you this message, and I do it with pleasure and with the intention that you could walk on the Path of the Consciousness' Revolution, in the spiritual, total, divine revolution.

I want you to understand that what really counts is the man, and that the Sun wants to create men. The Sun desires a harvest of solar men and is working hard at this moment to do so. I want you to know that when a race loses interest for the solar ideas, the Sun also loses interest for that race and destroys it. At this minute the Sun wants to destroy this race, because it is no longer useful for its experiments, but before doing so it is making a supreme effort, in order to reap with great effort a harvest, even a small one, of solar men. If you listen to our call, if in you the Availability of Man is created, the Sun will be able to absorb you as solar men, but it is necessary to have your cooperation; only in that form you will be transformed into Solar men.

It is urgent that before all else, you know how to transmute. The solar man can be created with the solar energy, and that energy is contained in the raw mercury of the wise men, in the raw mineral. That element is the Exiohehary, the sacred sperm. Those that commit the crime of extracting it from their organism with passionate reasoning, definitively submerge themselves into the infernal worlds, to their final disintegration.

In order for the seeds of man to develop in the organism, they have to be touched by the rays or emanations that come from the Sacred Absolute Sun; without those emanations, the seeds remain not fecundated and degenerate; fall frightfully into involution until the Second Death is fulfilled.

In order for Cosmic Ripples coming from the Sacred Absolute Sun can touch the germs of man, you need not move away from the Sacred Sol.

A person goes far away from the star, due the fornication and adultery. So we must understand that neither fornicators, nor adulterers touches the Holy Sun Absolute, that is why they fail.

The sun can not harvest of the fornicator nor adulterers. For the Sun to take a harvest we must stand upon the law.

What is meant by "fornicator"? Who spills the Cup of Hermes Trismegistus. What is meant by "adultery"? The coming into sexual contact with someone who does not belong to him. For example: A man taking another woman, and leaves the one that he has, leaving ... Even more, if only takes her to transmute take remains adulterer. Because if he has inside his spine his wife's energy and then contact to another one that is not his wife's , these types of energy equal destroy each other.

Is a physical law that two types of energy equal opposite destroy each other; is a short circuit, a cable burns, which? The truly "thread" that exists in the spine and which goes Sulphur, ie Fire, by burning Alchemist loses Degrees, Powers, fails in the Great Work.

The work is very delicate; why it has been said in the "Apocalypse" San Juan "nor adulterers, fornicators, nor can enter the New Jerusalem"; that is obvious. They stray too far from the Sacred Absolute Sun; not reach the emanations of Sacred Sex Sol playing their sexual germs, and these then become involutive and finally lost.

Whoever wants to cooperate with the Holy Sun Absolute, must have some kind of extraordinary faculties: There must have missed the sense of wonder, nor should have lost the ability of remorse. Who is no longer capable of wondering about anything, ever, nor can approach the new. He who is not able to feel remorse for his misdeeds, unquestionably walks the path of failure.

There are people who do not feel remorse for anything; but what is "remorse"? When the upper parts of the being faced to the Holy Sun Absolute, they can see the reality, and if their underparts are going down the wrong path, then emerges in the Self, remorse. This remorse of Being is transmitted to Personality.

But when and someone can not feel remorse for anything, it is a sign that definitively away from the Being, because only the Self can feel remorse; because if it is no longer able to feel remorse, is far from the being, of his own Self and the different parts of the Being, because Being has different parts, autonomous and self-conscious.

What could be expected from someone who does not feel remorse? That someone is sure candidate for the Abyss and the Second Death. But if anyone still has remorse, capable of feeling remorse for the bad actions committed, that someone is worthy of admiration for us.

; I really admire those who still feel remorse, I know some who are still able to mourn for their wrongdoings committed in previous lives. Obviously, when I hear people well, I can not help but feel ... feel some comfort in the heart. I know that these people are self realized.

When I meet someone who feels no remorse for anything or committed any evil action, pain fills my heart, because I know that someone is an absolutely hopeless; That is the harsh reality ...

Still comes to mind a scene when I was a teenager. At that time I had to meet a great intellectual, undoubtedly he loved wine, and between concept and concept I ended up with enjoying him some drinks. But the next day I felt great remorse; I told him:

– "I feel remorse for having taken those drinks". Answer: - "I do not feel remorse, and I come for another one". I was filled with horror ... I saw the man as he drank and drank and drank incessantly; and spent hours and hours and he kept drinking. I used to find him on the streets drinking being a mess and the most horrifying sloppiness; and spent eight days and I still seeing him drinking. I kept away from him, I had accompanied him on a few drinks, but never returned to accompany.

That fact happened to me when I was still a teenager.

Then I felt remorse for a few drinks I had taken. But he obviously had to have died long ago, he may now involutona in the bowels of the earth, still drinking; never reached him remorse. Who does not feel remorse, it is an absolutely hopeless inevitably fails.

So, my dear friends, we end this conversation, but also give opportunity to conclude our meeting, answering questions.

Everyone here are free to ask whatever they want to ask in the item above, without leaving from the subject, for reasons of order.

If someone has to ask, ask! The one that want to say something, say it! Whoever disagrees, expose why you disagree!

There is freedom of words, I am not a dictator of concepts! I have come to share with you ideas. I think among all, working, we can find many useful things. So you have the freedom to say what you want to say and to refute refute what you want ...

QUESTIONS

QUESTION: When you talk about self-realization ... includes man only?

Samael Aun Weor: When I say "man" I include women. It is written that she ... is like the man ... maybe because she came of the rib of man and always appointing the man, obviously included within man to woman; the woman is the other part of man, that is obvious. So I have not left you off the case. Another brother has something to ask?

Speak, brother ...

Q: In an Astral Travel, which you can use to visit other planets... you could travel to another planet with human body?

Samael Aun weor: In the astral body can travel to any world of infinite space, but is prohibited by Cosmocratores the "intellectual animal" mistakenly called "man" out of his world with his physical body.

Interplanetary travel are for men and not for the "intellectual beasts". It turns out that the animals have raised the Tower of Babel, want to escape through false doors, for that reason will be flamed, will be punished. The animal must be in their zoo, the "zoo" of "intellectual animal" is the planet Earth, there lives and there must exist.

Trying to escape from there, it is a crime punishable Act. Who are currently inventing rockets to travel to Mars, are completely wrong. They may make a few attempts, and finally, fail, fall all the "stars" of intellect, will be struck by the Act. The cosmic travel, I repeat, are not for the "animals", but for men, meaning more full of the word.

One can also put your body in Jinn State scoring the physical body into the Fourth Vertical to travel, but should never try to take your body to other worlds, because that's disrespectful to the Divine; that's all.

Any other questions?

Q: (it did not hear)

Samael Aun Weor: The Bible is not the past, the present, and the "Genesis" is not only last, but also corresponds to the present. Currently need us to live Genesis in alchemy: We have explained what "Separate the Lower Waters of Superior"; and superiors must go through many changes before they can be used to create and Lower should become clear; that's wonderful. But the work has Seven Periods, as it is in the "Genesis" that the real man as we know in the final period appears.

The "Genesis" is a book of alchemy, for Alchemists and only understood in the Laboratory of Alchemy. So by Alchemy, you can create true men, who are able to travel from sphere to sphere, from world to world; that's all.

Any other? Let's see ...

Q: Biblical characters were Solar Men ...?

Samael Aun Weor: Yes, as the patriarch Noah, for he is the same MANU VAIVASWATA, the Great Man Solar who led the people

Atlante to the central plateau of Asia, called "Tibet"; which brought the men of the Face Glowing, of the Yellow Face, the submerged continent, before it would sink between the raging waves of the ocean. MOSES and all those other Patriarchs quoting the Bible are Men in the fullest sense of the word, solar men ..

¿Any other question?

Q: Master, we can make some clarifications: a LOBSANG RAMPA book says we travel in the Astral world but unconsciously; I would like you to clarify this ...?

Samael Aun Weor: It is clear that the physical body during sleep, resting in his bed, which is beyond the physical body is the ego usually because people still do not possess the Astral Body. The Ego then travels through different places of the earth; revive different scenes, dramas, comedies, tragedies and transmitted by the Silver Cord Being. The transmission is unconscious. And the brain, in this case, it seems a television screen, it works and repeat exactly what the Ego transmitted.

On television we see the following: are the images of the central transmitted, are transmitted through space, wave-images come to television sets and they repeat exactly what was transmitted from the television center.

Similarly we say that the brain is the television screen that receives images exactly as they are transmitted by the Ego, just as he lives. No matter where the Ego is, so I could be on Mars or Jupiter, the network transmission is performed and the brain, such as television, as a screen, receives ...

Q. That is, the Astral body does not have built yet?

Samael Aun Weor: People have not made the astral body, which have the people is the Ego, which possess is the Ego and within the Ego is bottled Essence, Consciousness. Thus, people living outside the physical body unconsciously walk like sleepwalkers, unaware they are in the Astral world, but all living unconsciously transmit it to "the television screen," and this is reflected with full accuracy, such display is brain ...

Q: We will have a deadline for the job ...?

Samael Aun Weor: The term has ended: The hourglass is standing next to the hourglass is the skeleton of Death with scythe, ready to eliminate all these millions of human beings to were of no avail, that populate the face of the Earth ...

Well, not exaggerate saying were of no avail, served to the economy of nature; still serving: Up destroyed physical bodies serve as fertilizer to the soil, to have served yes.

So the times over, but if we take advantage of what is before destruction, a little time we have left, we can become solar men ...

Saturn is waiting the moment to make us "slit our throats", do not forget ... What else?

QUESTION: How many are those who already are solar humans ...?

Samael Aun Weor: Well, it's a small group, a few, I have not gotten to count, I know there's a small "handful" and that's it. We must increase the amount; since the Sun is worried about work, has since created Organic Life on the surface of the world, have the right to harvest, well earned. If a man sows coffee has the right to harvest it and if planting their corn has to harvest their corn and beans if you plant your beans are entitled to harvest it...

QUESTION: I like medical student interests me Man, but two things: I am interested in the "intellectual animal" because I will be a doctor and I am also interested in the man you speak. It is clear that from this point of view are elements of the body whose function is not perfectly well defined, but are capable of projecting outside the body, as is the case of Telepathy. But I think ... (do not know if I am in error, master), but I think we're in a time when so many races have joined, mainly here in America ... have joined, finally, ... certain enzymes or substances throughout the body and are functioning now as I worked before such mixture is made and that makes that are now manifesting examples of telepathy, clairvoyance ... am I right?

Samael Aun Weor: Well, I'll gladly answer your question .

You're a medical student, but you have to know the truth : And the current science or scientists have never really known the human body. You all medical students are victims of an illusion , think they know the human body but do not know

I could make outrageous claims before the Faculty of Medicine , I am absolutely sure that would reject outright, because the student from any faculty not speak exclusively of the Faculty of Medicine , is a " programmed robot ," and if someone does a question if given a concept that is out of the program, as is not programmed for that statement because is outside the program, obviously rejected because it is not within the robot program .

A robot any that exist in the world, you can ask questions , but avoid asking questions that are out of the program because the robot is not programmed to questions that are outside the program.

So it is with the Faculty of Medicine : the program; every student, every teacher, every doctor, in order each authority is a " programmed robot" . If I say , then, to any " programmed robot" such that the human body can change contained in State of Jinas, which may take the shape of an animal or a plant , obviously all I expose myself is that " I showered tomatitos and rotten eggs " , why ? Because the "robot " that is not scheduled to receive such information and what is outside the program is considered absurd.

However , the harsh reality is that the human body can become invisible, can move to another dimension of nature and the cosmos , can take another picture. Sure, the "robot" does not agree, because the " robot" is not set to receive the data ; the "robot" responds : " Witchcraft , sorcery ", " ha ha ha that's no good ... ", " tomatoes and rotten eggs against the speaker ... " "that belongs to the era of the Middle Ages " . .. This happens naturally because the " robot" is not scheduled to receive such data .

If I tell a medical student or an entire conference, a whole group of teachers, it is possible to separate the physical body of an arm or leg and retake again: " That would be impossible , it is not known in the practiced surgery experiment in which a man can separate his body at will or part of your body and then restore full without surgery, that's absurd ! " ...

And most are going to respond ; as the " robot" is not programmed to receive reports as unusual ; for these "robots " is absurd and stupid, too; know those stories to young children . But the wise know it's possible ..

If someone tells to a "robot" that WITCHES exist , the robot will say, "Aha !, at this hour with witches , go, go , and in the twentieth century , in the era of the atom, molecules , the rockets that shoot out to Mars. " It is impossible for a "robot" . But the truth is the truth and facts are facts. There !

If I say to you , that I know them, that they do exist and if I testify , they say : " Ah , Master Samael also believe in witches " , right? But none of that takes away the reality of what exists ; that is why there is a saying : " Do not believe in witches , but there are, there are " ...

I know a practitioner man, a lawyer who is a great intellectual , was Marxist-Leninist one hundred percent , was materialistic as any. But at last the man accustomed to scientific research , decided to look for something else and found the Universal Gnosticism. Once inside the grounds of the Gnosis was devoted to experimentation. That man , today is Gnostic , although it was Marxist and has a degree in Economics and Law graduate . That man met a " Calchona " the ones that we know as " witches "; and he is not a charlatan, because he saw her directly .

If I asked him to make a statement in public, maybe he would not do it, for fear that of the "programmed robot" to the powers excommunicate him . Also belongs to that generation of López Portillo (President of Mexico in 1976) , impossible for him to make statements on behalf of witches, impossible, what would you say these gentlemen of society, these gentlemen in starched collar ... ?

If he has not those commitments would not mind saying what he saw . I discovered some of these " calchonas " or " harpies " , as they were renamed it in ancient times , or as categorizing Dante in his " Divine Comedy" , nothing unusual. Sure, she was discovered at a time when he stole a pig . When questioned -a the " calchona " - reason why I did, it said : "I am poor , and I need it to celebrate the marriage of my daughter " ..

But the strangeness of that narrative, as to laugh at me all men laboratory ... all the luminaries of knowledge, is simply that she had not legs, she had left them at home ...

He did not cause any harm, and " calchona " could be happily through the fourth vertical one pig to his famous feast, the feast of demons. Naturally what I 'm saying could be compromised ... and even the press could afford to get me cartoons. I know very well the luminaries of intellect !; That is the harsh reality of the facts.

Thus , so is this: That a bitch can put your legs as many colonial texts say , those who have wonders on -Española- colonial times and now qualify as inconsistencies . However , it has been found ... And the Holy Inquisition certainly checked it and burned two of them in the colonial fires ; burned beyond unhappy as firebrands ...

But to return again to become his legs that have left in bed , how is that? That would not accept the University , nor by "a million dollars" would accept . And if a teacher dared to accept , that teacher would run the University to " tomatasos and rotten eggs "

But the reality is reality.
How do we get out of existence reality? Facts are facts and the facts before we have to surrender . If a body can change shape if parts can be separated in certain moments , what medical science is ?

Now I know some very different universities , which are not current . I know them from "wild " people (in quotes) , right? But these people have other concepts of anatomy: they study during 13 years ... serious universities , but ridiculous for the twentieth century . And yet , in these universities the concept of anatomy fundamentally changes ; and perform those medical cures astounding .

I know that kind of Universities. Thus Universities are not only those that we have, there are other universities in the world who know the medicine differently.

The reality of facts is that there are two types of Science: the " villains of the intellect " and PURE SCIENCE . Pure Science is for the Elders , and the intellect, is formed with the heap of modern theories abounds here, there and everywhere ; theories that go out of fashion as women 's fashions . Today a theory an tomorrow has changes since that theory and went out of fashion , and comes another , and finally , what? ...

We must conclude that while one does not know himself , nor can know the universe or anything. We , first of all , know ourselves before we can know the universe , before we can know the nature , before we can know the human body.

As Powers is too what humanity has degenerated ...

In Lemuria , any normal citizen , I sure could clearly see half a HOLTAPAMNAS . And what is meant by a " Holtapamnas "? A Holtapamnas is all the colors of the Solar System and the Universe. Later, much later, in Atlantis , human eyes could not perceive even half of shades of color, but third .

In Babylon yet , painters could provide for his paintings , for their jobs, some thousands of shades of color. Today , barely perceive the seven colors of the solar prism and a few shades ; the view is degenerate , rare today are the eyes that are a regular sight , they see ...

In Lemuria 300 consonants and 51 vowels that were properly articulated were used. It was degenerating language ability , and today, we hardly use the alphabet of the language parlamos .

The smell, in Babylon , was extraordinary. There was a school that was dedicated precisely to study the sense of smell. Sure, it was canceled, sealed , because these people had an extraordinary sense of smell , they could discover by smell shady dealings of government (including bribery , in parentheses) , total, King 's canceled ...

So, we come degenerating . Men of Lemuria could parlar in Orto Pure divine language, like a river of gold runs under the thick jungle of the sun. So with that language could talk to the Elemental Fire , the Aires , the water , Earth , and the Lemurs had power over the elements . That is what happens now ? In our Tower of Babel only parlamos in languages no longer have that power. We have regressed ; Powers that had once humanity is lost...

Nowadays , occur around us thousands of physical phenomena , I do not talk psychic , but physical , and that humanity is not able to perceive. With the sleeping Consciousness , the " humanoid " only perceives a millionth of all phenomena that occur around him, hear him well : one millionth of physical phenomena , is what manages to see the Consciousness of " humanoid " ...

There are many physical phenomena that happen around us and are not perceived by the best science faculties . So what we have is now involution , degeneration, which is only possible exit through the Sexual Transmutation and the Dissolution of the animal Ego .

That's my answer ... Let's see ...

Question: By conceptualizing the human being as "machine" , I wonder I have wondered many times about the "missing link" that many scientists have sought in Africa , Tibet , etc. Makes me just answered that the " link" is the inner Self that we wake up ...

Samael Aun Weor: Look, I 'll tell you a tremendous truth : there exists between the intellectual concerns of the world, the famous problem that man and monkey . Some argue that man is the " monkey " , other than the " monkey " comes from the man. Occasionally stir public opinion with the same problem , and then sleeps again -that many years oleadas- . There are times when people enter " fever " and return to the same thing: to know who is who and what is the link that unites man with the monkey , ie the famous "missing link" .

I repeat: Some think that man comes from monkeys , others that it is the opposite, that is the monkey man who comes at last , nobody knows who is who .

Over the harsh reality of facts is that at the time of Lemuria , especially late in the season we said post- Lemurian , some " intellectual animals " were crossed with certain beasts of Nature. Certain elements male crossed with female animals , and hence were some types of apes.

Then when ATLÁNTIDA plunged between the ocean , you were cut off in some regions of the Earth certain women , which in turn also crossed with male beasts , and from there was another kind of monkeys, apes , orangutans, etc .

So the stark reality is that some kind of apes , monkeys , orangutans , gorillas , come from the human race.

If they could speak our language and meet all those primates that are enclosed in -the zoological of Chapultepec in Mexico , they could say : " We are the children of you , we represent you; we are the result of their atrocities , we are the result of their savagery ; we accuse you because you gave us life ...Wicked , bums ! "

But the poor things can not say that and have to stay locked in their cages , serving there to witness of the painful and embarrassing of the poor " intellectual animals " .

So to search for the link that unites man with the monkey will not lead to anything, for that kind of thing that served as a link to both the end of Lemuria and Atlantis, they are disappeared from the scene of Nature ... and not seek more; is better to be responsible for eliminate from within what is bestiality.

I said ! ... Let's see brother ...

Question: (it did not hear)

Samael Aun Weor: Please repeat that I did not pay attention ...

Question: (it did not hear)

Samael Aun Weor: Well ... I understand , I understand ...

Undoubtedly, Translucent works . There is in man two types of Imagination : one could call us the intentional imagination , and this is the Translucent . With it the Astral World and its figures, or the wonders of the world of the mind , or the extraordinary things Causal World captures , etc.

There is also another type of Imagination, want to emphatically refer to mechanical imagination. This is unquestionably Fantasy is made with scraps of memory, is incoherent , bland , pointless, odorless, does not work.

In the painter or artist who is educated spiritually , works naturally in Mind, were, Creative Imagination , the Translucent who can perceive the Real in the Upper Worlds , to translate it later with his artistic hand on the canvas. So, are you using the Translucent and that is commendable and wonderful ; that's all.

Question: what is your opinion of those who say that the Jews are a cursed race ... ?

Samael Aun Weor: We should not speak out against any race, because the Jews are a people like any other people in the world; and in a town about all sorts of people : Some are good , there are bad , there are creative , there are destructive , there are all . So speak out against a people would be absurd ; that's all.

QUESTION : What happens when you can see some pictures, you can having lived before ... might correspond to a reincarnation ?

Samael Aun Weor: That depends on each case is very unique , each case is individual , each image must examine it. You can not answer that on board. Many times in dreams can we live scenes that belong to past lives ; or in dreams, many times, we can live certain dramas , comedies and tragedies that do not match the current time . Obviously , these events belong to past lives , past life ; that's all.

Q: (It did not hear)

Samael Aun Weor: When I say "past lives" , I mean past lives that every human being has ...

Any other questions Brothers ? See , talks ...

Q: (It did not hear)

Samael Aun Weor: ¿How do you say? Do not speak that fast!...

Q: (It did not hear)

Samael Aun Weor: The " Kalki Avatar " is here in my person is worth nothing, the work is everything okay? Myself , I repeat, is worthless, the Kalki Avatar is in here ; it is he, what matters is him, not me ... That my Being , the top of my Being , is the Avatar , but me not worth "five cents" ; I said ! ...

I think we're done tonight my esteemed friends.

Forge of the Cyclops

In Greek mythology, the ancient cyclops were eternal, usually represented by three beings with only one eye, who lived in Tartarus (hell), were engaged in casting and forging of metals and were beings wiser world, were manufacturers of all weapons of the gods in general. They were under the supervision of Hephaestus.

The terms "work in the forge of the Cyclops", the "descent to the Ninth Sphere" and the expression "work in the Flaming Forge of Vulcan" are different forms used in esoteric symbolism to refer to the transmutation of sexual energies, ie the practice of tantra yoga is whose base maithuna.

HERMES TRISMEGISTUS

It is a way to call, uniting, the Egyptian god Dyehuty (Tot in Greek) and the Greek god Hermes and it definitely refers to an Egyptian priest whose existence is lost in the mists of time. Hermes Trismegistus is Greek for "Hermes the Thrice Great".

Hermes Trismegistus is mentioned primarily in occult literature as the Egyptian sage, identified with the god Thoth (headed Ibiz) also Egyptian alchemy that created and developed a system of metaphysical beliefs that today is known as secrecy.

For some medieval thinkers, Hermes Trismegistus was a pagan prophet who announced the coming of Christianity. Studies have been attributed to alchemy as Emerald Table, which was translated from Latin into English by Isaac Newton, and philosophy, as the Corpus Hermeticum.

SAHAJA MAITHUNA

Maithuna is a Sanskrit term used in Hindu tantra to denote sexual union in a ritual context.

Sahaja is a similar term used in Yoga. In both cases reference to the transmutation of sexual energy is done by specific techniques.

Although there are multiple interpretations of how to do the different translations of the word maithuna clearly shows that refers to male-female couples and their union in the physical-sexual sense, and is synonymous with "nishpatti kriya" (mature cleansing) .

As the spirit without matter is not effective by itself, both elements work together to achieve harmony only when the union has been consecrated when considering that reaches maithuna correctly. The couple is then divine: she is Shakti and he is Shiva.

Tantric literature usually makes numerous references to the need for control to achieve ejaculation or perform maithuna sacred sex.

The Maithuna based on sexual union of man and woman, without loss of sexual energy for spiritual purposes. Which include Kundalini awakening and removing impurities of the soul.
