The Mahajima Nikaya says that the Buddha had many supernatural powers including being able to walk on water (anima), multiplied by one million and return to being one (pratkipa), travel through the space-time continuum (Brahmin) be big as a giant and small as ants, walking through mountains, swim into the earth and travel to heaven to instruct the devas.

Distinguished gentlemen, ladies: we will give tonight start our discussion Certainly within each of us there is a puzzle that must be known; where we come from, where are we going, what is the purpose of our existence, we exist, why ?.

These questions invite us to reflection, if we came to know themselves, we would know the world and the universe; therefore it is necessary to comply with the maximum of Thales "Gnosete Ipsum" Man know thyself and know the Universe and the Gods. "

ANAHUAC wisdom in speaking of OMEYOCAN, place two where everything is two to become one and knowing both. When one investigates about what they call comes Omeyocan unquestionably the "navel" of the Universe.

In truth, all that emerges from Omeyocan appears as a sphere; spheres are split out and then reinvested in until the original starting point, to Omeyocan; They are reversible spheres, as well as tell the President of Mexico

Jose Lopez Portillo in his masterpiece entitled "Don Q". The spheres are multiplied out, in and to the sides, says the author, and it is, and it will be; They unfold out and then collected themselves and come back and dissolve into the Omeyocan.

This world of ours Earth emerged from Omeyocan as a purely mental sphere and unfolded to appear in the current physical form; much later in time whatever the spheres are reversible, our world will gather to dissolve in Omeyocan and taught the doctrine of Quetzalcoatl, so says the President of Mexico Jose Lopez Portillo in his masterpiece entitled "Don Q ".

We should analyze these issues before entering the transcendental theme of Super Man. Based on such important statements wonderful reach conclusions; Obviously our world before appearing in a sensitive, existed in the higher dimensions of nature and the cosmos.

Unquestionably, all that has been and will be, including the human body; It was processed in higher dimensions of Nature, before becoming sensitive in this three-dimensional world of Euclid This is precisely what bothers both the materialist anthropology.

Do not want to understand the followers of Darwin and Engels and Marx Haeckel, the three-dimensional world of EUCLID is not everything.

Obviously, the mathematical point when moving becomes line, the line to get into action, to extend itself becomes a surface; the surface to rotate on itself becomes solid, the solid in turn becomes hyper solid.

This is a correct reasoning that bothers fans of materialist dialectics, the mathematical point allows us to objective reasoning, but, if we replace the mathematical point for the beloved "ego," then we will not understand the mystery of creation. The " "makes us clumsy, even frightfully ridiculous," ego "is nothing more than a sum of passions, hatred, selfishness, theories, fears and desires, lust, anger, etc.

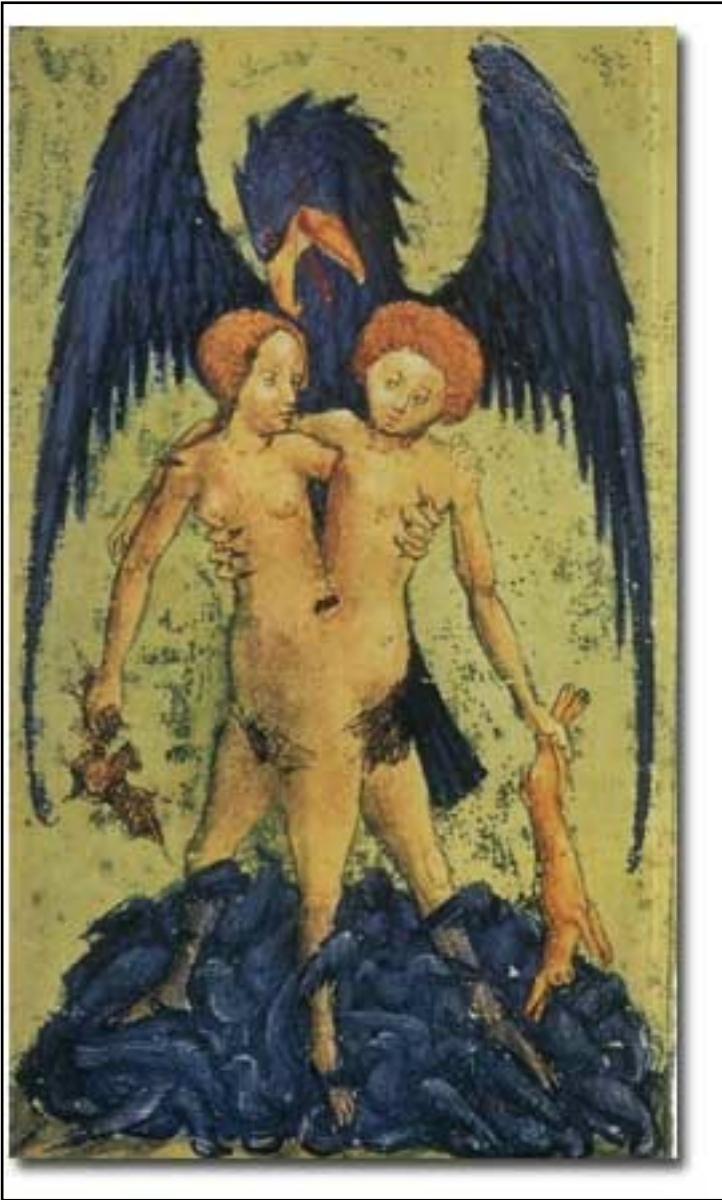

We need to really be sincere in the analysis, seek the path of truth at any cost; if accepted a protoplasmic land emerging from the chaos, we are in good position to know that that's true.

Obviously, before this world was as simple protoplasm, it had to function in the higher dimensions of the Universe.

This three-dimensional world of Euclid is not everything; if we confine us only the three-dimensional world of Euclid, we fall into falsehood. We would be bottled in materialist dialectics, which is doomed to disappear sooner or later. It has come to discover the vital depth of the human body, it has been able to clearly demonstrate that the physical body is not all, we have a double body; this has been called the special title bioplastic body, that's his name, has photographed him, is in relation to the living organism and even outside the living organism you are studying it and as a consequence or corollary materialist dialectics fell knackered before the solemn verdict of public conscience.

Friends: preparing for the subject for Superman, I press.

The first race to appear on the face of the earth was the protoplasmic race, in terms of anthropology, we accept the protoplasm, not that physical HAECKEL salt, good to Moliere and his caricatures, we accept the radial protoplasm the polar protoplasmic race that once lived in the North polar cap.

Then the geological physiognomy of our world was different, the poles were in the equatorial zone, and Ecuador at the poles.

This may bother too fans of atheistic materialism, but is duly proven over and over again thanks to some accurate mathematical calculations, is that right now are seeing the henchmen of materialism as their utopias collapse, as they fall to dust, how towers those of his views become ashes, and suffer too because they worship the God material.

The time in which we reflect deeply, has come protoplasmic men were unquestionably different, but nevertheless would be absurd to suppose that they had actual physical consistency; afirmáramos if they were rather of a gelatinous substance protoplasm, I'm sure you would not lie; that were otherwise propagating the species, demonstrated the human organism, we know that the cells grow in our organism by cell division; somewhere we had to inherit that cell multiplication system.

If in fact we can not deny that we inherited from the protoplasmic race; those agencies were divided into one, two, three rods, which could continue breast feeding with mother ... absurd father would say, well, they'll have to tell nonsense to the living cell that multiplies that way; much later in time the Hyperboreans race multiplied by the system or sprouting outbreak emerged.

Any outbreak of the human organism arose in certain moment, and he continued to live father-mother; finally appeared the Lemurian race on the continent Mu or Lemur, accepted by Mr. Darwin. The continent was in the stormy waters of the Pacific Ocean.

The Lemurian race was a hermaphrodite. Evidence ...? This demonstrated ... dear friends you have them in your same organization. Well we know that male nipples mammary glands are atrophied; we know that the clitoris in women is a "phallus" atrophied and collected with nervous ligaments, you want more evidence ...?, it would be absurd to demand more tests when the load on the human body; time extraordinary things happen, that the human race is divided into opposite sexes before the demise of the Lemurian continent, it is something that we could not escape in any way.

The same Hebrew scriptures tell us that Adam lived alone in the earthly paradise this Adam of the Jewish mythology is just a symbol, refers to ancient humanity; before mankind had divided into opposite sexes was the "Adam solus", but in truth Eve was taken from Adam's rib.

Do not think of an anthropomorphic Eve, in a strange woman. No, think of the eternal feminine. Unquestionably over time they were dividing the sexes gradually.

Playback in Lemuria was by budding, true unquestionably the egg that always they issued ... was always issued the ovary, it was a perfect egg, when it opened, emerged from there a new creature that had the power to move immediately, the power to walk; however, through the centuries children were born with one sex more developed than another and spent whole ages before had divided the sexes

When mankind is divided into opposite sexes, then cooperation to create was necessary before it had divided into opposite sexes, it is obvious, everyone can understand, the egg that leaving the ovary of the Lemurian race, devenía fertilized wonderfully, since he was born a hermaphrodite body but when humanity was divided into opposite sexes, and left the egg without fertilization, then, that sexual cooperation was needed to re-create and re-create.

At that time, sex was considered sacred, the human race long journeys performed by the Lemurian continent, guided by their spiritual leaders, to the temples where should receive sexual sacrament; males and females were mated in the sacred temples yards mysteries; and sex was verified under the wise direction of the Lemurs. No one would have dared at that time to have intercourse outside the temple.

The first, second and third races were actually races of men in the most transcendental sense of the word; Par-lavà man in the universal language, and talking in that language performed miracles through the power of the verb. Dominated the fire, air, water and land, the senses of perception had not been stunted, when the man raised his eyes to look at the stars, I saw the worlds surrounded by a very special aura, and also saw other planetary humanities with which they communicated telepathically.

In that era divine, every human being could feel totally almost an entire HOLTAPANAS a holtapanas equivalent to medium color tones 5 million and ears perceive sounds that today we are inaudible, many vowels and consonants are used, old traditions, we have found, all ancient, tell us that the Lemurs 300 used consonants and 51 vowels, ie had a higher verbal power; also undoubtedly they had developed senses million times better than us.

The Lemurian race was perfect in the fullest sense, that capacity for verbal expression lemur was lost through the centuries, as the human being was degenerating, when the materialistic anthropologists say that we have peaked perfection in these moments of truth lie, is that they know nothing of anthropology, who have not studied in depth the old stones, old manuscripts, ancient pyramids, niches, tombs, etc. that they exist everywhere.

There are stones such as those found in a certain place of Peru (Ica stones), which is demonstrated time and again that there were civilizations much times more powerful than ours, and in the Mesozoic times, accept this materialistic anthropology, never ; they would not give his arm to twist and because yes ... but facts are facts and facts we have to surrender ...

There evolving and devolving processes; if we say that everything is evolution, lie to, we would fall into the dogma of evolution involution processes also exist, demonstrations ...? many; evolving germ is clear and we see how the stem goes up millimeter by millimeter, as it unfolds, as check branches, leaves, that's evolution, let's look when fruits how much beauty ..

That is the evolution, but later the tree withers, the leaves are falling, the flowers fade as if they were just a dream, and eventually, the tree becomes a pile of firewoodeso is involution; want to force accommodate the involutive processes within our beloved dogma of involution, it is an absurdity. We need an elastic, ductile, able to think clearly mind, but not move away much of the subject, let the man Lemur.

I said that the first three men's race, this must invite reflection.

Unfortunately in life, unusual things happen at the end of the Lemurian time, real men degenerated before degeneration, I repeat what I said, but I become monotonous, "the play is considered sacred"; men and women copulated in yards without ever why in organic physiology known as spasm or orgasm; that is, there was no ejaculation "Ens Seminis" because, as PARACELSUS said "within the Ens Seminis" contained all the "ENS Virutis" fire ". Any mature spermatozoon escaped from the endocrine glands for fertilization, and real human beings reproduced, real men before degeneration, how do we know ?, by tradition through the centuries inherited this gnostic knowledge, are there not published ?, what are publishing? I do not accept the present humanity is normal because only the playback system was used by real human beings that have existed on the face of the earth.

Friends not be offended tonight think terrible things to talk to you, but please be patient, good listeners, we are educated men and women; I firmly believe that we have gathered here with a determination to learn something, if, and tonight is going to know, whatever the cost.

The real human beings, I repeat, those of Lemuria, degenerated at the end of the last race, then mixed with beasts, horrible but true; so we say the old ancient manuscripts, there are traditions of Tibet, China, India; no stones, no monoliths, there codices that we are saying, and we as students of anthropology, we can not shut them up, what men mingled with the beasts? it was true; this happened naturally in very archaic times of our world, in the Lemurian continent.

There is no question of Paleolithic man, no, man was rather Pliocene, the result of such crosses, real men with beasts of nature; Atlantean civilization was powerful, grew, men (I speak this time conventionally) had atomic planes, rockets that went to the moon long before our astronauts set foot on the moon, and the Atlanteans had done, it is not the first time that human beings come to the moon, and they arrived in the past, and if we think we are the first, are certainly wrong.

The Atlantean continent of Lemuria arose after, and plunged into the raging waves of the ocean that bears his name.

Lemuria was still bigger than Atlantis occupies the entire Indian Ocean and Malaysia, and reached the same Australia, and moved south to near where today is South America, but disappeared in the waves through ten thousand years of unceasing earthquakes.

When Atlantis emerged from the ocean, and Lemuria was finished.

Friends; Atlantis that followed the Lemurs and were no men in the fullest sense of the word, were merely intellectual animals and they come us ... sank Atlantis due to a revolution of the axis of the earth, having had a powerful civilization, were moved by nuclear power cars; amphibians and could sail, could also slip on the ground or float in the atmosphere; They moved their nuclear power industries; they learned to manage solar energy and fliers had boats; some stones found in Peru has been able to demonstrate rare testimonies of them, who knew science gives transplants, managed to transplant brains; also transplanted with hearts success, kidneys, livers, etc., and did not fail in their transplants, we Aryans have not gone so far so far, transplants have not been a real success, especially heart transplants, they have not given the appetizing result, there are few who have survived a few years after such transplants; but the Atlanteans not only transplanted hearts, until brains heights to which we have not yet reached; and yet we think we are the center of all married and future civilizations, how are we wrong; really, really, we have a civilization, nor the last, not the first nor will it be. Obviously, we must be more revolutionary in our thinking.

That to believe that our civilization is the most powerful is false, yet at this time of life we are transporting gasoline powered carts and we believe super-civilized; worth to reflect a little.

We are descendants of Atlantis and the Atlanteans in turn were descendants of the mixing of men and beasts; yes it is a bit crude and cruel that I'm saying, and many do not like these crudities, but better to be frank ... has deceived the human race. It has done great damage to be told that now is the state of man.

In truth, I shout with all the strength of my soul, that man does not yet exist. And I'm not the only one to shout, they said with great emphasis the Mayans, they put him in his writings, even on the same undefeated Marbles Museum of Anthropology in Mexico City

Remember the masterful work of Lopez Portillo (President of Mexico), which we have already quoted, to that precious character, when people went to Quetzalcoatl saying; "Lord, just Quetzalcoatl; Quetzalcoatl is just ..."; remember talking to who in the trial of Quetzalcoatl said: "Quetzalcoatl no longer wants to Tula, Quetzalcoatl loves men, and men do not exist ...". That was said in the era of the Toltecs, and were written in codices forever; therefore it is also discussed in this masterpiece, which in truth men do not exist ... I agree with what was said at that time; He said there is intellectual animal, but the animal is not intellectual man.

If we put a man against an intellectual animal, we will see similar physically, but observe his psychological processes are different, one thing is the psychological processes of man, and another thing is the psychological processes of the intellectual animal, mistakenly called man.

At the University of Mexico, Faculty of Medicine, a teacher said to his students: "We are intellectual mammals," students did not protest, I do not; I agree with what the teacher said. If we were men, we would not be killing each other on the battlefield. If we were men, we would not be killing dolphins among the stormy waves of the ocean. If we men do not exist hunters who enter the mountains and forests to kill the creatures of nature. If we were we would not be materialistic atheists men's eternal enemies. If we were real men, in the fullest sense of the word, we would not be drunkards, nor adulterers, fornicators, nor murderers, nor perverse.

The man is the man; man is the king of creation, and if we are not kings of ourselves, we can be much less kings of creation. It is not conceivable a king than the king of truth; it is not possible to conceive of a king of nature than King himself.

If we fail to handle the elements; If we are not able to direct the fire of the volcanoes or hurricanes or the stormy waters of the oceans; if we are not able to master the earthquake, we are not men. For that man is the king of creation.

So, we are kings or we are not; So far we have shown that we are victims of circumstance. We are not lords of creation, we are not kings themselves; therefore, man as say the old codices of Anahuac "still there". However, at this moment the sun is doing a wonderful experiment in the test tube of nature wants to create men.

During the days of Adam, a group of men were created during the first eight centuries of Christianity, there was a crop of men. In this time of global crisis, bankruptcy of all principles, at this moment in which we find ourselves faced with the dilemma of being and not being of philosophy; The heat made it a new test in the laboratory of nature. Wants to create men, it is the goal of every race, the sun has created all races to make his famous experiment, but when a race is no longer useful for that experiment is destroyed immediately.

This breed is terribly atheistic, materialistic, whore, horribly perverse and therefore going to be destroyed at any cost.

Actually really is time that we should cooperate with the sun to emerge man in us, first of all we need availability to man, it is necessary that man is formed within us, like the butterfly in caterpillar, we have the germs for man, are deposited in our sexual glands, if we cooperate with the sun, and those germs will develop within ourselves, in the depths of our psyche, shall the real man.

First of all, the man if we want to emerge in us, if we want those germs of man to develop in our biological and psychosomatic constitution, it becomes necessary to accept the sexual system of men, the system of "KRI-YASHACKTI".

That hate both schools of pseudo esoteric, pseudo occultist that some mystics detest both wrong

The human reproductive system, as I said, it's great ...
..leía there something in "Don Q" the extraordinary work of President Lopez Portillo, said the following; "It is painful that the road leading to fertilization, lose or consume so many millions of spermatozoa for a single fertilization"

In truth, I think between the waste precisely and greed of forces or powers must put the law of balance, that did the lemurs, never reached the seminal ejaculation, I repeat, any spermatozoon could escape automatically to make fruitful one matrix, then as a result, there was the real man, with powers over the fire, on the air, on the water and the perfumed earth.

The true man parlava in the verb of light, like a river of gold always runs under the thick jungle of the sun that was a different era, it was the age of the Titans, those were the times when the rivers of pure water of life flowed with milk and honey ... at that time there was neither mine nor yours ... everything belonged to everyone and everyone could eat the neighbor's tree without any fear. Mankind was innocent and perfect, talked with the gods of dawn and could command the elements, then the storms served carpet for those towering giants that moved upon the face of the earth, that was the golden age, the age light, age of love. At that time there were no wars, hatreds and evils, as there is now, at that time the sun actually looked in every mind and roses spirit showed gallant and beautiful at the roadside, everything was scented with spirituality , he had not appeared on this unfortunate world atheistic materialism, or crime, or crime, or all those monstrosities which today are everywhere, here, there and everywhere.

The time of the Titans was the time of the Edens, it was the epoch of real authentic happiness, there were no borders, there was no hatred, everything was love and revere the sun for power that has to give us life, is He revered in the same way ZARATUSTRA worshiped him, was revered in the same way that children ARCADIA accustomed to revere the creative powers of the universe ... it was a different time, my dear friends, there was real joy in every heart, because the man commanding the elements, living in rich palaces and there was famine among the crowds, it was the age of the ancient Edens, but when the man "ate the forbidden fruit," he was told "not eat" then they lost their precious faculties, sat limp and miserable and had to walk from wandering from town to town.

So in Hebrew mythology he tells "you worked with the sweat of your brow to support your wife and children ..." as she is told; "You shall give birth in pain"

Great was the degeneration of man when I spill the cup of Hermes Trismegistus, when he accepted the animal generation, when finished become a monster of wickedness. But if we accept the reproduction system Kriyasakti the real men, real men of the world have been, then the real man germs develop within ourselves and we will become men.

The man, after that integrates with the divine undoubtedly acquires powers before the Lemurs had when the man integrates with the divinity can send to fire, air, water and land.

When man integrates with the divinity grasps the sword of Cosmic Justice to rule all the forces of Nature.

Worldwide there have been real men, all presentiment in the bottom of our heart that one day walked the face of the earth, the superman. All presentiment the existence of super man, all seems that we take in the depths of ourselves, reminiscent forgotten super man.

Super man is a GAUTAM BUDDHA SAKYAMUNI, Super man is a MOISES that he could command the elements of nature, that it terrified the Egyptians, that opened the waves of red for the Israelites to pass through there sea. Super Man is, in truth, QUETZALCOATL, living incarnation of the logos; Super man in truth was a wise and who was known by the name of TRISMEGISTRO Hermes, the thrice great God IBIS Toth.

Today, we are honest with ourselves, we are vulnerable, weak; today we are helpless creatures, full of hatred, wars and abominations; man need arises in us, we need to appear in us after the super man.

We can first create man, and much later in time, then we will be born in the Super man; super man in truth, must come to dominate the entire universe, super man should arise in us with extraordinary powers to send in this creation.

Friends ... sex is the way, the road to becoming men is eminently sexual; vainly seeking truth will walk in schools, theories, sects, etc., need to learn to handle the creative energy of the Third Logos, if we truly wish become true supermen, in the fullest sense of the word.

When a man and a woman unite, something is created, even a larva or a child; if we take advantage of the extraordinary forces of creation that surround the couple during chemical copulation, let's roll with such energy transformed, we become true men, and much later in supermen.

Unfortunately, humanity has gone down the path of sexual degeneration; Today humanity has maxed degeneration, well you that there are countries where homosexuality and lesbianism are legalized know; where men marry men and women with women.

It is also very true and all reality, the degeneration is so great that there are countries and in those who want to legalize incest himself. That way the day the child with the mother and brother with sister, etc. would be reached in which the father would marry the daughter, That call today the civilized disque, "Civilization", and who knows what else.

Households have disintegrated, now the woman is on the one hand and the other man, has lost the family unit and vice corrode this race to the marrow of the bones, humanity is frightfully devolving these days and no doubt that as it devolves this humanity, the Earth also precipitated by the downward path involution.

The seas in these times have been contaminated and many species are disappearing, the land is being sterilized, it is becoming a desert; the atmosphere is polluted with smog abominable, many creatures die every day due to smog, wherever there is hunger and desolation. There are millions of human beings who die each year, multiply frighteningly earthquakes and all these must be added that a monster comes to devouring the Earth; First BARNARD like to refer to as astronomers call it, or also HERCULUBUS; is a giant world is a much bigger world than Jupiter, is estimated to be 6 times larger than Jupiter the Titan of sky.

Which it comes into Earth orbit at remarkable speeds; astronomers are studying it in detail, we are told that it will soon come near our planet; when it is, there will be tremendous cataclysms such as those that ended the Lemuria and Atlantis.

With the approach of HERCULUBUS, the liquid fire from inside the Earth will jump to the surface, and then burn, in truth, everything that has life. In the maximum HERCULUBUS approach, there will be a revolution of the axis of the Earth; change of bedding seas, the present continents where she lives this perverse humanity will sink between the raging waves of the ocean ... this perverse civilization of vipers will not be stone on stone; this civilization will be destroyed.

However, there were no survivors of Atlantis and Lemuria also obviously from this race will be saved some, there will be formed a small core of people of good will who will be brought secretly determined in the Pacific; a place to put in a meridian of longitude and latitude where nothing befall, because the disaster will not happen in the same way all over the world.

That bred, those people of good will have to go through many processes of purification before it can serve as a basis for future great race.

I want to tell you that the future great race will live in new lands and new heavens low; I want to say that the future great race will be reconquered innocence in the mind and heart; I want to say that the future great race will be real men, men who have truly risen from the same germs we carry in our sexual endocrine glands.

Virgil, the poet of Mantua said, "I got the golden age, and a new progeny rules."

All the sacred books of ancient times speak of the great catastrophe that is coming; all tell us that this perverse humanity will perish by fire ... carefully read the books of the Maya, read the old Bible, we read the Koran and books of Asia, and we can verify what is prophesied.

Obviously, what I am saying it will never be accepted by the antichrist of false science; indeed that "the antichrist" is not an individual as some, being done signs and wonders everywhere; Antichrist is the ego, the "I" the myself, the self within us, we need to eliminate the antichrist of themselves, that arises in us men, and later the super man.

The antichrist of materialistic science hates all these things, is full of self-pride, believed to have mastered the universe, think that you know all the wisdom of the infinite, more lies.

So my words here tonight.

What is the super man?

Moises abriendo las aguas del Mar Rojo

One codex of Anahuac has stated, “The Gods created men of wood and after having been created they were merged with the divinity.” However, immediately after, it added, “Not all men achieve integration with the divinity.”

Unquestionably, the primary necessity is to create Man before being able to integrate him with what is real.

The Intellectual Animal mistakenly called man, is in no manner a Man.

If we compare Man with the Intellectual Animal, then we can verify for ourselves the concrete fact that, although the Intellectual Animal physically resembles Man, psychologically he is absolutely different.

Unfortunately, everyone wrongly supposes themselves to be Men, qualifying themselves as such.

We have always believed that man is the king of creation. The Intellectual Animal so far, has not demonstrated that he is at least a king of himself; if he is not a king of his own psychological processes, if he cannot direct them at will, then much less can he govern nature.

We can never accept Man turned into a slave, incapable of governing himself and converted into a toy of the bestial forces of nature.

We are either kings of the universe or we are not; with reference to the latter, unquestionably, the concrete fact is demonstrable that we have not yet arrived at the state of Man .

The Sun has deposited the seeds to make Man within the sexual glands of the Intellectual Animal. Obviously, such seeds can develop or be ultimately lost.

If we want those seeds to develop, it is essential to cooperate with the efforts that the Sun is making to create Men.

An authentic Man must work intensively with the clear purpose of eliminating from himself, the undesirable elements which we carry within.

If the Super Man does not eliminate such elements from himself, he will regrettably fail, he will become an abortion of the Cosmic Mother, a failure.

A Man who truly works on himself, with the purpose of awakening Consciousness, can integrate with divinity.

Obviously, the Solar Man integrated with divinity becomes, in fact, in his own right, a SUPER MAN.

It is not easy to become a SUPER MAN. There is no doubt that the road which leads to the SUPER MAN is beyond good and evil.

A thing is good when it suits us, and bad when not convenient. Within the rhythms of poetry crime is also concealed. There is much virtue in the villain and much evil in the virtuous.

The road which leads to the SUPER MAN is the path of the Razor's Edge. This path is filled with peril, from both within and without.

Evil is dangerous and good is also dangerous. The frightening a this beyond good and evil, it is terribly cruel.

Any moral code can detain us on our way towards the SUPER MAN. Attachments to these or those yesterdays, to this or that scenario, can halt us on the road which leads to the SUPER MAN.

Norms and procedures, however wise they may be—if they are encountered bottled up in this or that fanaticism, in this or that prejudice, or in this or that concept can obstruct us in the advance towards the SUPER MAN.

The SUPER MAN can distinguish good from evil and evil from good; he grasps the sword of cosmic justice and is beyond both good and evil.

The SUPER MAN, having liquidated from within himself all good and evil values, has become someone whom nobody understands; he is the ray, the flame of the Universal Spirit of life, resplendent in the countenance of Moses.

In every refuge on the Path, some anchorite gives his offerings to the SUPER MAN; but the latter continues on his way beyond the good intentions of anchorites.

That which was spoken by people, beneath the sacred porches of the temples, has great beauty; however, the SUPER MAN is beyond the pious sayings of people.

The SUPER MAN is lightening; his word is the thunder which disintegrates the powers of good and evil. The SUPER MAN shines in the darkness; however, the darkness hates the SUPER MAN.

The masses qualify the SUPER MAN as perverse, for the very fact that he does not fit in with indisputable dogmas, neither within pious phrases, nor within the upright morality of serious men.

People abhor the SUPER MAN; they crucify him amongst criminals because they don't understand him, because they prejudge him, viewing him through the psychological lenses of what is believed to be holy, even if it is evil.

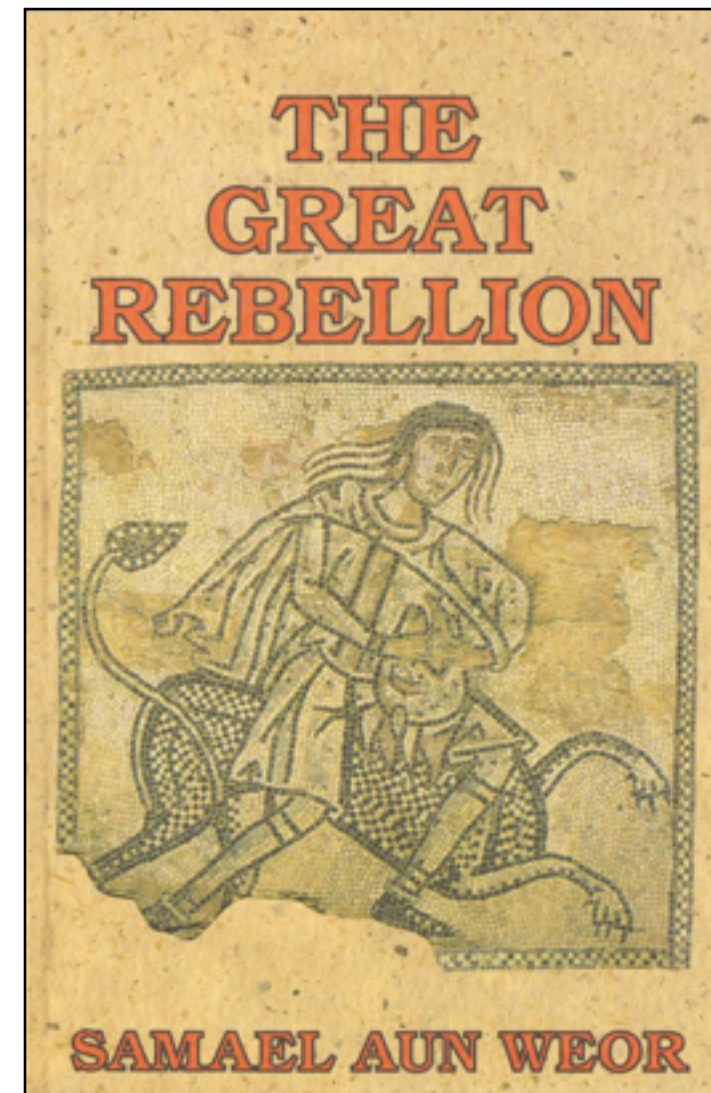

The SUPER MAN is like a flash of lightening which falls over the perverse, or the brilliance of something which is not understood, which is afterwards lost in mystery.

The SUPER MAN is neither a saint nor is he perverse; he is beyond sanctity and perversity. Nevertheless, people qualify him as holy or perverse.

The SUPER MAN sparkles for a moment within the darkness of this world and soon afterwards disappears forever.

Within the SUPER MAN, the Red Christ, The Revolutionary Christ, the Lord of the GREAT REBELLION, incandescently shines.

ANAHUAC

Ancient name of Mexico.

Anahuac (Nahuatl ā [tl] 'water', and nahuac 'near', 'beside', so it means "near water" or "waters located between what" can refer to "Cem Anahuac" name given by the Mexica civilization to the world known for it even before the conquest of Mexico by Hernán Cortés and the arrival of Europeans in America.

the term "cem" (fully) attached to the word "Anahuac" can be literally translated as "land completely surrounded by water", or more formally: "[the] whole [of what is] beside the waters."

This term refers to the continental consciousness that already had the Azteca on American territory, corresponding to his empire, which is surrounded by two major water masses of the Atlantic Ocean and the Pacific.

EUCLID

It was a Greek mathematician (ca. 325 - ca 265 BC..). It is known as the "Father of Geometry".

His work "The Elements" is one of the world's most famous scientific works and was given a collection of knowledge in the academic center. It is presented in a formal way, based only on five postulates, the study of the properties of lines and planes, circles and spheres, triangles and cones, etc.; ie regular shapes.

Inspired by the harmony of the presentation of Euclid, in the second century the Ptolemaic theory of the universe, according to which the Earth is the center of the universe was made.

Given that point, according to Euclid, has no size, is assigned a null or zero dimension. A line has only long so that acquires a dimension of one. One surface has no thickness, no height, so it has two dimensions: width and length. Finally, a solid body, such as a cube has three dimensions: length, width and height. Conclusion The world is three-dimensional.

Euclidean geometry was a work that lasted unchanged for nearly two thousand years.

However, although Haeckel was a big proponent of the idea of natural selection, in fact ignored the role of chance in the Darwinian theory. Its evolution accepted many of the ideas of Lamarck. Radically progressive, Haeckel argued that evolution was directed toward a progressive move increasingly complex living things and would have man as ultimate goal. Haeckel was also radically monistic and materialistic evolution and considered as one of the best evidence of this philosophy.
