Who are we? Where do we come from and where are we going? What's the purpose of our existence? Why do we exist; for what? The poor "mechanical animal" doesn't know at all, and this is painful. Obviously, all of this mechanicity is one hundred percent lunar.

We lead mechanical lives. We have habits that we repeat incessantly, and our habits are always the same; we don't change them. We get out of bed at a certain time, we eat certain foods, we go to bed at a certain time, our job is always the same track, and we always say the same things; all of which means we are totally mechanical beings, we have no consciousness of ourselves.

You can all now see the force that the Moon has: it produces the high tide and the low tide; when the moon is waxing it makes the sap rise to the upper part of the tree; when it's waning the sap tends toward the roots.

The Moon, whether it's new, or waxing, or full, or waning, has a definite influence on us.

If wood is cut when the Moon is waning there is one result, if it's waxing there's another result. The ancients planted during the waning Moon because they knew that way the wood, the fruit, etc. would turn out better. During the waxing Moon everything tends to grow, to rise, to ascend...

So, my dear brothers and sisters, the lunar mechanicity is fully demonstrated. The Moon is like a pendulum that makes all the mechanics of Nature move.

We carry that Moon inside of us, that mechanical psychological Moon, and obviously it has a decided influence on our psyche. It's time to start understanding these things...

There is no doubt that the Earth, the Moon, the Sun, and the galaxy we live in are also within us, from the psychological point of view. The Sun is unquestionably higher than the Moon on the scale of worlds, and the galaxy in which we live is undoubtedly higher than the Sun, the Moon and the Earth; that is obvious. But, I repeat: just as there is a physical universe, visible and tangible, a radiant material universe that everyone can see, well, it is also certain and absolutely true that there is a psychological universe within us. This means that within us we must create our psychological universe in like form.

If we want to free ourselves from the mechanical influence of the Moon we would have to begin by creating inside of us a Moon of a psychological type. If we create a psychological Moon in our interior we'll free ourselves from the Moon's mechanical influence, that fatal mechanical influence that we carry around inside of us.

We have a mechanical center and it is under the mechanical radiation of the Moon within us. There is a need to create a conscious psychological Moon. By this I mean that we must create a conscious center of gravity in the place of a mechanical center of gravity.

If we intentionally create a psychological type of Moon, a psychological Moon, obviously we in fact create a conscious center of gravity. This psychological Moon will displace the mechanical Moon that we carry around inside of us and therefore we will stop being mechanical entities, puppets that others move around.

Delving deeper into this matter, we'll say that in order to be able to make a conscious center of gravity, a third force is needed, and that third force is none other than the Esoteric Christic GNOSTIC Work. By means of that third force we manufacture, we create the conscious center of gravity.

So there are two kinds of humanity. We'll call the one the "mechanical humanity" and the other we'll call the "Conscious Humanity".

To go from the mechanical center of gravity to the Conscious Center of Gravity we need to work, we need to appeal to that third force, which is the Gnostic Work on ourselves, here and now...

Man or woman number one is the merely instinctive, mechanical person. In that man or woman the instinctive and mechanical or motor centers predominate.

Man or woman number two is the emotional individual, an individual that lives in the world of the lower emotions, the passions, the animal desires, etc.

Man or woman number three is the merely intellectual person, the man or woman who spends their whole day, their whole life, reasoning; the man or woman who bases all their activities exclusively in the intellectual center.

Men and women numbers one, two and three form the circle of the "confusion of tongues;" the "Tower of BABEL", because in that Tower there is confusion of languages: the intellectual person doesn't understand the emotional person, the instinctive person doesn't understand the emotional person, the emotional doesn't understand the intellectual, and the emotional person also doesn't understand the instinctive nor does the instinctive understand the emotional...

There we have the confusion of tongues: no one understands anyone. The intellectual person says a word and the other person hears it his own way. If an intellectual man or woman states something, saying it to an emotional man or woman, the emotional person won't understand the intellectual and will interpret the words of the intellectual according to his emotions, giving those words a completely different meaning.

By the same token, when the instinctive person says something, the intellectual hears him in his own way and interprets in what he thinks is the right way. The emotional person can't understand the instinctive person either; when the instinctive person says something, the emotional person doesn't understand.

All in all, even if we speak the same language in a country, men and women one, two and three don't understand each other, they live in the circle of the "confusion of tongues", the circle of "Babel." There, no one understands anyone. It takes a great deal of effort for persons one, two and three to understand each other. Men and women one, two, and three interpret things their own way, the way things seem to them, and the result is that no one understands anyone.

Men and women one, two and three are the ones who have started the great wars of the world; the First and Second World Wars were provoked by men one, two, and three.

We need to move up to be man or woman number four before we can belong to the “Kingdom”; the Kingdom is made of men and women numbers five, six and seven. In the Kingdom everyone understands each other; there is no “confusion of tongues” there.

Man and woman number five possess an Astral Body and they know that they have it; they use it at will.

Man and woman number six possess a Mental Body and know that they have it.

Man and woman number seven possess a Causal Body and they know that they have it.

The confusion, humanity’s problem, lies with persons one, two and three, those of the Tower of Babel, the ones with the problems. These are the ones who have truly done much damage. I think that the Divine Hierarchies now must set men and women one, two, and three apart and let men and women four, five, six and seven have peace, because the ones, twos and threes have been causing problems for many centuries, and they don’t understand each other.

Obviously a great catastrophe is coming that will take care of performing that surgical operation on humanity, separating the “sheep” from the “goats”; so it is written.

What is man or woman number four? Man and woman number four are the ones who have balanced the centers of their organic machine, who now possess a Moon, a Moon that they have made, a Psychological Moon; they are the ones who have now created a Conscious Center of Gravity. This type of man or woman is ready to enter the activities of the Kingdom.

We know that to create a Moon in us, in other words a Conscious Center of Gravity, a permanent center of gravity, we have to appeal to a third force, that's obvious. That third force is the Gnostic Esoteric Work. We're here giving you the teachings you need to be able to create a Conscious Center of Gravity in yourselves.

Obviously whoever wants to create such a Center must begin by abandoning self-consideration and self-sentimentalism. When we love ourselves too much, when we have too much consideration for ourselves, when we're filled with self-sentimentalism, sighs, anguish, sorrows, etc., then we usually hate our fellow men and women. This is to say that the more one loves oneself, the more one pities oneself, then the more we will hate the people around us.

The most vengeful demons, the most perverse men and women, are those who love themselves too much, who treasure themselves, who are full, I repeat, of self-sentimentalism, self-compassion, self-pity. If one detests oneself, then one will love one's fellow men and women.

I am not telling you to become masochists, no; I'm not saying to go that far. There's no need to be a masochist, but what I do want to tell you is that we should recognize our own imperfections; we should accept that we are mechanical creatures, that one's life moves along tracks of habits, tracks of acquired manners. We should accept that we are full of jealousy, rancor, and frightful resentments.

When one accepts this, ...when one accepts that one is a mechanical creature; when one detests that self, then one begins to form, one begins to create within, a conscious center of gravity. So then, one moves from the mechanical center of gravity towards the Conscious Center of Gravity by the work upon oneself. That's the third force.

It's not superfluous to clarify tonight that all of us here, in our institution, are going to teach you to work upon yourself so you can create within yourselves a Conscious Center of Gravity. Whenever all of you form this Center you will stop being mechanical individuals and will become conscious people; you will have formed, we can say, a Conscious Psychological Moon within.

Obviously, one has to make several "creations" within oneself. Later on in time one will need to create something else, one will need to create a Psychological Sun within oneself, and then, indubitably one will become a Solar Human Being. But one cannot become a Solar Human Being if one has not previously assimilated within oneself the Solar Intelligence, that is to say, if one has not previously created within oneself the Spiritual Sun, the Conscious Sun, the Christic Sun.

So, one has to start by creating the Psychological Moon within oneself before creating the Psychological Sun within oneself, here and now. Later on it will be necessary to create an inner Psychological Galaxy within our human nature. Thereafter the known Infinite—I would call it “Einstein’s Infinite”—that Infinite, which has around a hundred million galaxies, each one with a hundred million suns, etc. (up to where our telescopes can perceive, within some 600,000 light-years) should also be created within oneself. And when that happens one will have elevated to the stature of the gods.

Furthermore, if we think about the various infinities that can be demonstrated through the transfinite mathematics, then we would understand the possibilities for us are also transfinite...

If in a blackboard we write the sign of the infinite and we add another one to it, infinite plus infinite equals an infinite. This mathematical operation allows us to set an axiom (not a simple theory, but an axiom): the thesis of various infinities... There is an Infinite and beyond there are others, and all the Infinities have as their basis the Absolute.

Now I want to tell you my dear brothers and sisters that a person who has manufactured his or her Psychological Moon, that is, a Conscious Center of Gravity, in fact becomes independent from the lunar mechanicity. Well, in homeopathy there is a principle that says similia similibus curantur: “like cures like”. So we could say that if the mechanical moon has made us mechanical beings, we can become independent by creating a Psychological Moon within ourselves, which is a Conscious Center of Gravity. By doing so we become independent of that lunar force that creates the high and low tides and which serves as a pendulum for the mechanics of Nature.

But that’s not all: an individual that possesses a Conscious Center of Gravity due to having created a Conscious Psychological Moon that allowed them independence from the lunar mechanicity, obviously should then create a Psychological Sun within themselves. When does one create it? When one manufactures the Superior Existential Bodies of the Being, through the fulfillment of the Cosmic Duty of the Being - PARLOK- that has three factors:

Death, or the destruction of the “undesirable elements” we carry inside of us;

Birth, the "Second Birth".

"He who is not born of water and fire [of the Spirit], said JESUS, the great Kabir, to Nicodemus, will not enter the Kingdom of Heaven. To enter the Kingdom, one has to create the Superior Existential Bodies of the Being, in other words, one has “to be born of water and fire”...

Sacrifice for Humanity, because if we are selfish; if we do not work for our fellow men and women, if we don't raise the torch on high to light the way for others, we ourselves will not progress. People who are self-centered, regardless of how pious they may be, will not progress in these spiritual studies.

So then, dear brothers and sisters, the creation of a Psychological Sun within us has three factors that you already know: Death, Birth and Sacrifice for Humanity...

When one assimilates the Solar Intelligence, the Solar ideas, then one becomes a Solar Human Being. The Sun has wanted to, and wants to, create Solar Men and Women. The Sun has deposited in our sexual endocrine glands the seeds to create a Solar Human Being. Those seeds can be lost, and they usually are lost. It is an experiment that the Sun is making, a very difficult trial: the creation of Man, Solar Man or Woman...

During the times of the prophet Abraham the Sun succeeded in bringing about many creations; in the first eight centuries of Christianity he succeeded in creating a few Men; and during the Middle Ages, only a few creations. In this day and age the Star King struggles, making a last attempt, to create Men and Women before the destruction of this Race. When humanity losses all interest in Solar Ideas, the Sun also loses all interest in that humanity, and destroys it, creating then a new Race for his experiment in Nature's laboratory. His experiment is the creation of Solar Men and Women.

Obviously the creation of Solar Men and Women would not be possible if we didn't cooperate with the Sun. We have in our sexual glands the seeds to become Human Beings, but the disposition of being a Human Being is needed. If we cooperate, if we work according to the Gnostic ideas, then the Solar Man will be born, will emerge, within us. This is similar to the butterfly that is created inside the chrysalis: when it is ready, the insect comes out, and flies away... In the same way, we are like the chrysalis: the Solar Man must be formed within us. But for it to be formed we have to cooperate, that is fundamental. When one cooperates, the Sun is born within us, a Psychological Sun, the Solar Man.

The Sun wants a harvest of Solar Men and Women, and obviously he has the right to it because he has created this thin film of organic life that covers the face of the Earth, and that gives him the right. If a farmer plants, he has the right to the harvest. The Sun has established over the cortex of our world an organic life, a thin layer of organic life. We don't deny that this thin film is a factory of pain. Who can deny it? But the Sun has the right, I repeat, to a harvest of Solar Men and Women, which is what he wants. For that reason he has the right to claim payment, since he has worked. Those who work must be paid...

So then, if we want to create a Psychological Moon, that is to say a conscious Center of Gravity within us, and later after that the Psychological Sun, we will need sacrifice. Without sacrifice it is impossible to create a Psychological Moon. So let's talk a little bit about sacrifice...

If for example we stop loving ourselves in that there is sacrifice; but we have a marked tendency to loving ourselves too much, the "I" of self-esteem exists within us, that's obvious. And to stop loving oneself implies sacrifice. To stop loving oneself one has to learn to receive with pleasure the unpleasant actions of one's fellow man. If one is capable of that, then one is capable of giving life to one's Conscious Center of Gravity, and in that there is sacrifice. Are you capable of receiving with pleasure the words from an insulter? Would you be sure to smile to the one who has slapped you in the face? Let's be sincere with ourselves, we must change and that is only possible through sacrifices! Receiving with pleasure the unpleasant actions of others implies sacrifice; leaving aside self-consideration, self-sentimentalism, is sacrifice.

In general we protest against those that hurt us with their words, and to protest is an error. The person who is hurting us is giving us a new extraordinary opportunity, is offering us nothing less than a "psychological gymnasium," through which is possible to learn to receive with pleasure the unpleasant manifestations of our fellow man...What would become of us if the insulters would not exist? Where would we train? In what place, what would be our "psychological gymnasium?"

Yes, we need to be insulted, to be hurt, and even to be slapped; the important thing is to learn to receive with pleasure all the offenses; since if one discovers that has an "I" of anger, one has to work with that "I" of anger: one will have to comprehend it integrally, and then beg the Divine Mother KUNDALINI to eliminate such "I" from one's psychological nature. If one has within the "I" of self-esteem one will have to beg the Divine Mother Kundalini, will have to supplicate her and she will eliminate that "I" from one's nature; then we will not love ourselves or we will not self-love ourselves anymore.

Therefore the insulters are useful, that is obvious. And what can we say about jealousy? If one gets to destroy jealousy within oneself, not only passionate jealousy, but also religious jealousy, political jealousy, etc., then one will have made a great step forward. One has to declare oneself enemy of the “Myself,” of self-consideration, of self-praise, of secret fears; one has to become independent from jealousy, from pride, from vanity if one really wants to create within oneself a Conscious Center of Gravity. Those who really have achieved it are Man number 4. Man number 4 is ready to fabricate an Astral Body and to enter the path of Man number 5.

Man number 5 lives in the Astral World absolutely conscious. Who possesses an Astral Body can travel with that body through space, can visit other planets, and can be in contact with the Conscious Circle of the Solar Humanity that operates over the Superior Centers of the Being. Man number 5 at the same time is ready to become Man number 6 and will become Man number 6 when he fabricates a Mental Body; then is capable of perceiving all the wisdom of Nature. Man number 6 becomes Man number 7 when he has fabricated a Causal Body; then he can receive its psyche (soul) and spiritual principles, and become a Solar Man, a True Man. That is why I have been telling you that after fabricating a Psychological Moon one has to fabricate the psychological Sun, and these progresses are based on sacrifices.

How can a man who has fabricated a Psychological Sun and a Psychological Moon, a Solar Man, for example become a Galactic Man if he would not descend? He must descend to the “Ninth sphere” to the “FORGE OF THE CYCLOPS,” to the infernal worlds. To later resurrect and elevate himself towards the Stars and become what is called a “Galactic Man,” he should create a Galaxy within himself; and he will solely create it through sacrifice, descending to the infernal worlds. A Galactic Man has the perfect right to travel from Galaxy to Galaxy; this means that in fact he can enter an intergalactic crew.

What can we say about the Man who has elevated himself to the level of an Infinite? Who has created an infinite within himself? To do it he has to descend to suffer; has to enter the innermost recess of some world to know the Laws of the Infinite and later ascend again; then an infinite is created within himself.

A Man like that one can travel from Galaxy to Galaxy, he deserves it, he is a God. But there are even bigger possibilities: it is possible to penetrate in the Future Infinite or in other infinities, and elevate oneself grade by grade; but each ascension is preceded by a descend; it is not possible to ascend if previously one has not descended.

Only through sacrifice one can transform oneself and become something different. However we must not confuse a descent with a fall. Obviously, those that have not reached a High Initiation easily confuse a fall with a descent. That is obvious... Those are the ones that in the Movement said: “Master so and so is fallen, brother so and so has fallen,” and let their tongues get carried away without any knowledge, they do not understand the laws of Alchemy, they have never studied the “Apocalypse” from an esoteric point of view, they know nothing about the Alchemical “Genesis;” those are the ones who slander the Masters...

So we have to be severe in the analysis and profound in the reflection; so we have to understand the work we must do. We need to little by little raise our level, grade by grade, and pass from a mechanical center of gravity to a Conscious Center of Gravity. And that is only possible through a third force. That third force is the Gnostic Esoteric Work.

Here, we are going to give you the means; all the systems; all the science needed to become Man number 4. We need for you to understand that only those type of persons are the ones that already possess a strong Conscious Center of Gravity.

So my words here tonight.

Peace Inverential..jjj

Divine Mother KUNDALINI

Also expressed as "Devi Kundalini Shakti" or Divine Mother Kundalini.

In the context of Hinduism, the Sanskrit word Shakti means energy or active power of a DEVA (male god), personified as his wife.

Originally, all female deity of Hinduism has been called DEVI and has been associated with fertility, then every Devi and power has been understood as shakti. In the context of Hinduism, kundalini is an unseen energy represented by a serpent sleeping coiled in the Muladhara (first chakra, which is located in the area of the coccyx).

For a long time related to the Kundalini, as power was a reserved or secret knowledge, but all traditions and religions refer to it with some symbolism. But the birthplace of the concept of Kundalini in Hinduism is the personified as a female goddess or Shakti immaculate, energetic power of our Spirit. She is depicted as a serpent sleeping coiled three and a half times, which gives it its Sanskrit name.

Yogis say: "His own Kundalini is nothing but his own SPIRITUAL MOTHER. You're her only child. She can not hurt or harm but devote little by little, to cure your own physical body and repair your chakras "When the Initiate invokes the Divine Mother Kundalini, to help, she appears as a Virgin Purisima, as a Mother of all worship. In it are represented all our Mothers of all our incarnations.

Mother Kundalini is the serpent of fire that rises through the medullar canal. The Mayans and Toltecs produced a whole cosmogony around her.

Among the Egyptians the Virgin is Isis. Among the KALI Hindustani in its positive aspect. Among the Aztecs is TONANTZIN. She is REA, CIBELES, MARIA, Adonia.

Diana among the Greeks and the Virgin Mary in Christianity have also been ways to represent it.

In all cultures and in all ancient religions there is always a Spiritual Mother.

FORGE OF THE CYCLOPS

In Greek mythology, the ancient cyclops were eternal, usually represented by three beings with only one eye, who lived in Tartarus (hell), were engaged in casting and forging of metals and were beings wiser world, were manufacturers of all weapons of the gods in general. They were under the supervision of Hephaestus.

The terms "work in the forge of the Cyclops", the "descent to the Ninth Sphere" and the expression "work in the Flaming Forge of Vulcan" are different forms used in esoteric symbolism to refer to the transmutation of sexual energies, ie the practice of tantra yoga is whose base maithuna.

GNOSTIC

Gnosticism encompasses several philosophical and religious currents that reached syncretic blend with Christianity in the first three centuries of our era, and was eventually declared heretical by the Catholic Church, exerting a great influence until then.

Scholars refer to a pagan Gnosticism and Christian Gnosticism, although the most significant Gnostic thought was reached as heterodox branch of early Christianity.

The term comes from the Greek Γνωσις (gnosis): 'knowledge'.

Despite the great diversity of current or Gnostic schools is possible to identify some common elements, especially its secret or initiatory character.

It also highlights the dualistic nature, whereby a distinction between matter and spirit are made. Evil and destruction were linked to the matter, while the divine and salvation belonged to the spiritual. Man can only reach salvation through the tiny spark of divinity that is the spirit that dwells within. Where mortality is an essential experience for that achievement. This empirical experimentation almost divine gnosis is an internal experience of the incarnate spirit, all of which is part of what became known as the "Gnostic myth."

The Gnostic Myth consists in a complementary manner, by:

- 1 - The existence of a supreme God
- 2 - Lighting and fall pleromatic
- 3 - The Demiurge architect as creator
- 4 - The evolution of the Pneuma in the World
- 5 -The dualism of existente
- 6.-The role of savior Christ.
- 7 - The cyclical return of souls to matter through reincarnation.

The modern Gnosticism was founded by Samael Aun Weor.
