THE ORIGIN OF MAN

SAMAEL AUN WEOR

PROEM

The "Elohim" produced themselves, modification, man in his own image ... they created the first collective humanity or "ADAM" (male and female). God (the collective Deity) created them.

The protoplasmic race Sacred Island located in the north, was actually his first production, a tremendous change in and for themselves, the pure spiritual existences.

Polar primitive race that came the second race: people Hyperborean; androgynous inactive.

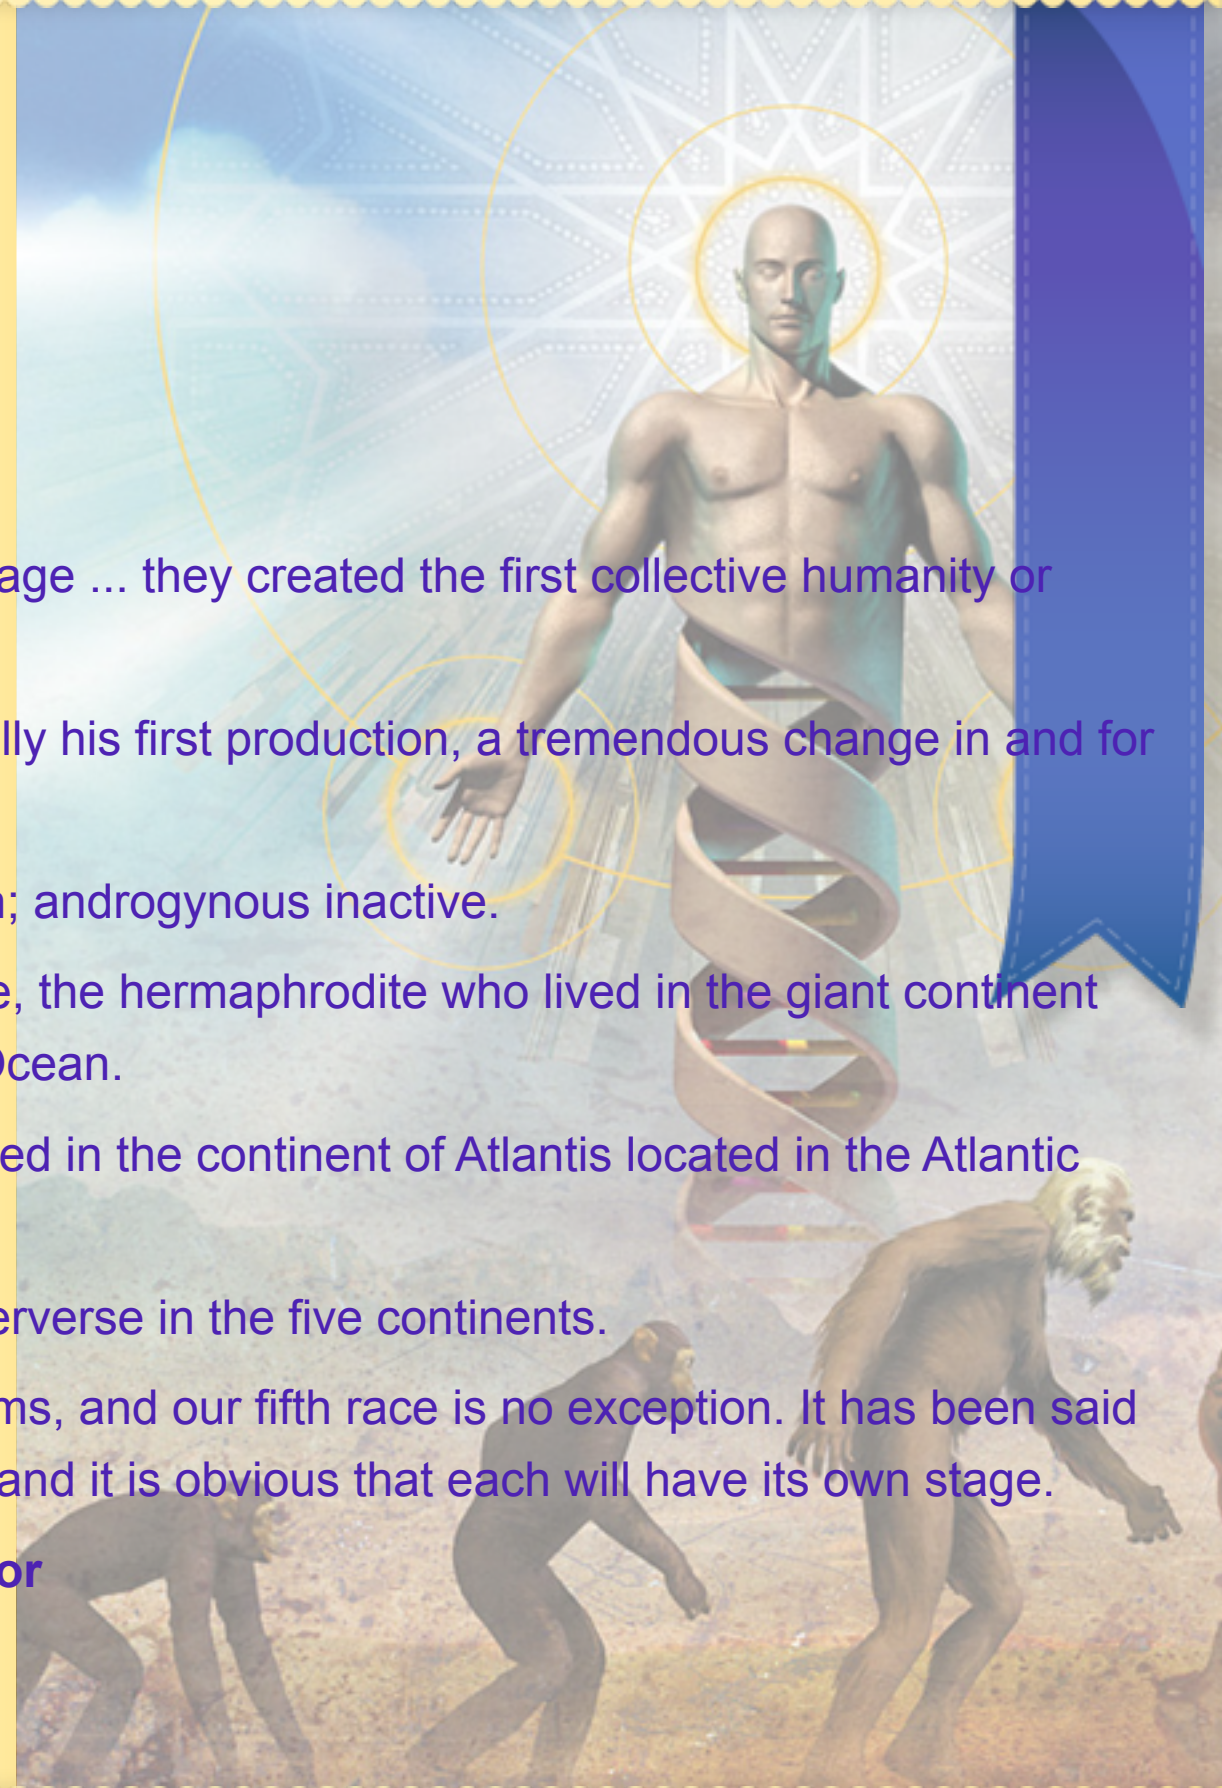

The Hyperboreans came by modifying the third race, LEMUR people, the hermaphrodite who lived in the giant continent Mu or Lemuria as it was called later and was located in the Pacific Ocean.

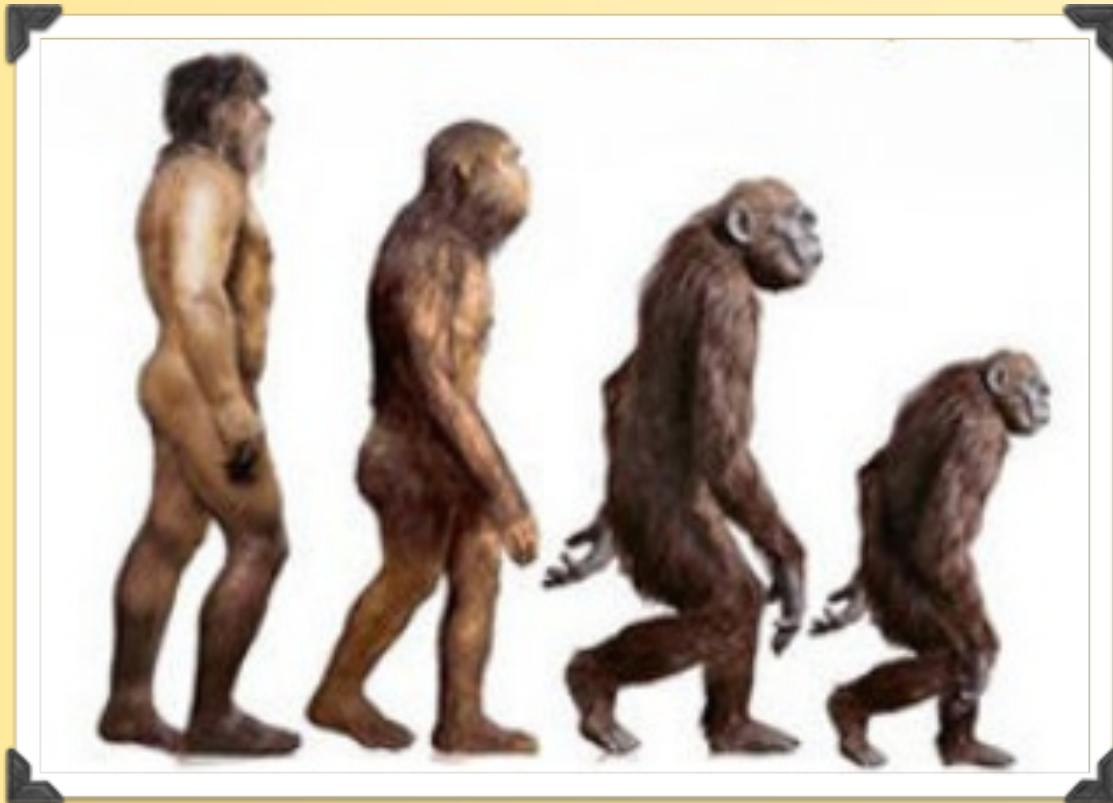

The hermaphrodite produced separately and the fourth race, who lived in the continent of Atlantis located in the Atlantic Ocean.

ATLANTIS people comes our current fifth Aryan race that inhabits perverse in the five continents.

Each of the four preceding races perished through gigantic cataclysms, and our fifth race is no exception. It has been said that in the remote future will exist on the face of the earth two races and it is obvious that each will have its own stage.

THE ORIGIN OF MAN

Tonight meeting will start with our discussion in connection precisely with the enigma of man, it is necessary to know in order to form a clear idea about themselves.

First of all you should try to know the origin of man, where he came from and what was the fundamental motivated their existence.

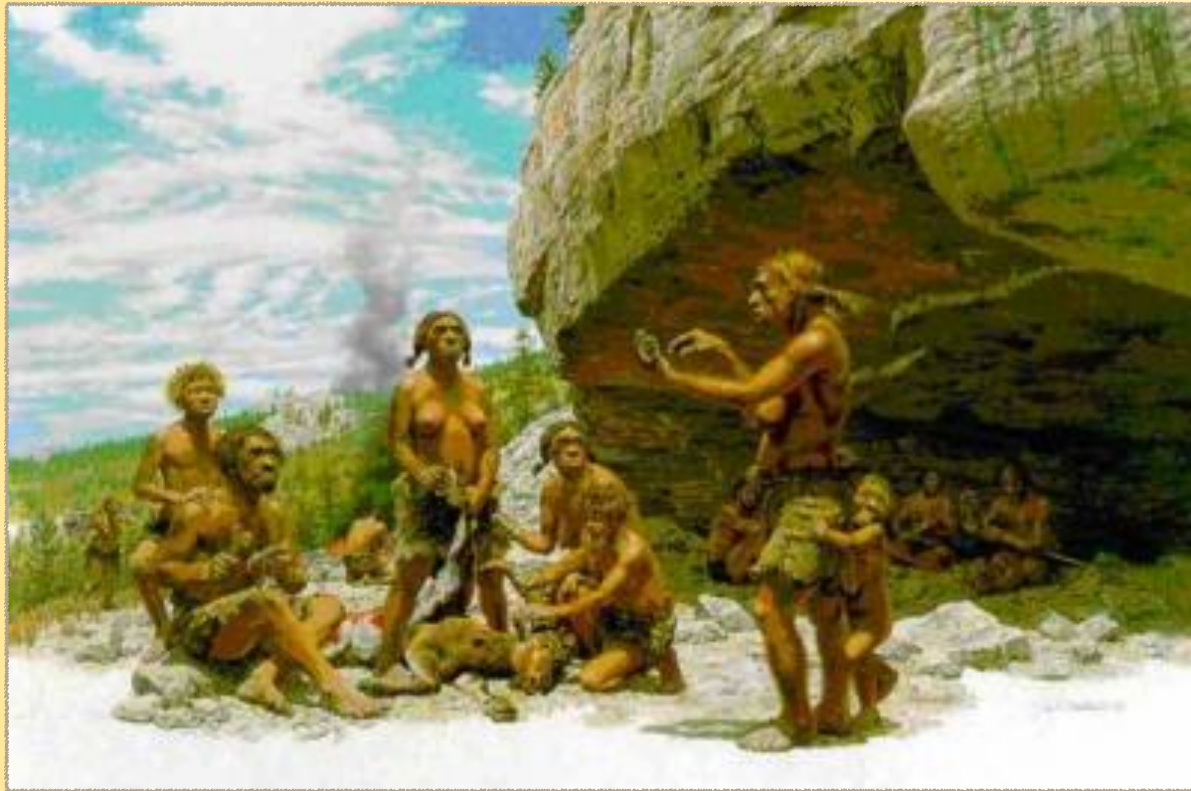

Much had been said about the man, and you need to enter a deeper ground.

Currently is living on the face of the earth a population of about four thousand five hundred million people; which populates the face of the earth is obviously the Aryan Race. Current continents are densely populated; Europe, America, Asia, Africa, Oceania, are five continents where humanity evolves.

Which one is its origin? Do you think perhaps this humanity that populates the five continents originated in apes ?. Human remains were found in the caves of Grimaldi and Cro-Magmon, and has tried to reconstruct the history or prehistory of the breeds Grimaldi and Cro-Magnon; found bones of giants. In Brazil, a human skeleton of several meters, six or seven meters tall and in various parts have been found skeletons of giants.

Skeletons were also found, especially in the caves of Cro-Magnon, human beings simply have sort of traits of gorilla or something like that.

All this has been wrongly inferred that the human race may come from apes.

Darwin's theory gained national attention at the time and thought that the man came from the monkey.

That case concerned a lot to mankind from time to time, it is whether the man came from the monkey or ape man came. Who came from whom? For times this concern goes, for the same periods concern resurfaces again.

There is a pseudo-scientist who had the idea that the human race came from the wild, said the; of course, that some people liked it, but after all solved nothing.

Who came from whom? I think this whole population of four million currently 1500 (1977) populates the world and not necessarily have come from the five continents that currently inhabit, do not think so, because it turns out that the world has changed its appearance several times, to have this face that you see in the maps or in any hemisphere, he had a different aspect; there are more ancient maps, different maps have been found in other parts of the world where the face of the earth appears different.

So continents have not always had the same appearance, once he had different aspect urn, what today are poles was Ecuador, and what is now Ecuador were poles. Then the present continents were not existe, there was part of them rising from the bottom of the sea and there was a densely populated continent, which was located in the Atlantic Ocean.

So the face of the world was different, I do not think in any way that the origin of the human race is in the present continents.

When the human race unfolded in ancient Atlantis was very different, apes or ape man species found in the caves of Cro-Magnon and Grimaldi and other caverns belong rather involuted descendants or degenerations of the race of Atlanteans .

I say that as the evolution of plants involution exists there too, that as the evolution of animals exist involution too, and in the humans happens the same, etc., also it has to be evolution and involution in the civilizations . For example: when one talks with certain tribes in the world, located in the West or in the East, you realize that they have behind them, huge civilizations and they want to keep in their memory legends corresponding to their missing ancestors of ancient civilizations and they speak of such ancestors with ecstasy.

They seem so primitive cannibals, behind have huge civilizations, preserved traditions of times immemorial, enormous cities, etc .; then they are not primitive, are simply degenerate, involutive. Some cruel and bloodthirsty, some wild all tribes are involutions or descendants of ancient civilizations.

It is difficult to find these days truly primitive people, and it is that human races evolve and involute. Before there were these five continents, I repeat, Atlantis existed.

Today we are enamored of modern civilization, we marvel rockets traveling to the moon or the moons of Jupiter, Saturn, Venus; they surprise atomic experiments, physiological investigations, the study of living cells, etc, we are fascinated with so many experiments, till we came to the conclusion that it is the most powerful civilization that has existed in the world.

We have fallen into a sort of geocentric system. and I say that because you know very well, in the past, it was believed that all the planets revolved around the earth, in the middle ages; so we have fallen into a kind of Geocentrism when we think that the whole history of the world has to revolve around our vaunted civilization ..

I think it needs a kind of de-egocentricity modern, you get a new Newton to be able to prove that our vaunted civilization is just one of so many civilizations that have existed on Planet Earth.

One day may come when this particular show; There are systems, there are methods by which one can highlight the fact that there was another more powerful than our civilization, before this there was a more powerful civilization than ours.

Well, I want to emphatically refer to the Akashic records of Nature, to the memory of nature, because nature has memory.

Experiments with Carbon-14 have shown that the moon is older than the Earth. We can also show that there are systems by which it is possible to read the memory of nature; Akashic records are a reality. One day it will fall into the hands of scientists, I do not deny.

We, the Gnostics have procedures by which we can study the Akashic records of Nature.

Whoever wants to study these Akashic records of Nature will have to develop, in an extraordinary way, the Lotus of one thousand petals, which is related with the pineal gland, the Sahasrara Chakra, and the latent powers that are in the pituitary gland, Lotus of the two petals and 96 radiation. This pair of small glands are extraordinary, developed they give us access to the Ultra, to extra perceptions, and the Akashic records of Nature

When you study the Akashic records of Nature, you see them as a "living movie," there is in the form of living films throughout the history of Earth and its races.

The sages who have been able to study the Akashic Records of Nature, know that Atlantis was real, it was a vast continent stretching from the South to the Northeast, that gigantic continent was the setting for the race that preceded us in the course of history, I mean the great race of the Atlanteans, a race of giants, so the legend of the centuries tells of giant BRIGADEO the one with a Hundred arms.

A race of real Cyclops, that race came to have a powerful civilization ... many times more powerful than ours; on transplantation, they transplanted organ meats of all kinds, livers, kidneys, heart, and brain were able to transplant, that was terrific.

In the physical-nuclear field got the atomic lighting in bulk, all cities using atomic lighting, the fields were lit by nuclear energy, their homes with nuclear power! within the field of mechanics, I can assure you that their cars were only amphibians, but also could fly through the air, they were powered by nuclear energy; not only the energy extracted uranium or radio, but many metals and many vegetables grains also, and they ran very cheap.

Regarding air navigation ships were more powerful than current, true flying boats or flying ships powered by nuclear energy. Trips to the moon were made better than they are doing today "Tyrian and Trojan"; They were amazing with atomic rockets traveling to the moon and not only those descended on the Moon Astronauts also descended on any planet in the Solar System. So we do not "arrive or heels" our vaunted civilization and the modern pseudo-wisdom and we do not serve or to clean dust from the shoes of Atlantis.

In matters of Anatomy and Biology they made progress even remotely suspect. KETABEL, that of the sad fates, -a Atlantean Queen, she established a decent cannibalism regrettable; thus began the degeneration or involution of Atlantis. Such Reina kept alive and managed all his youth for thousands of years. Then sacrificed maidens, young people to the gods with such purposes, then used the corpses, any sacrificed corpse was taken to the laboratory and there certain glands that needed the famous Ketabel were extracted, with the sad destinies and those glands were used to replace Ketabel worn glands.

But not only they were extracted from the corpses just the physical glands, no; today famous modern scientists are so degenerate that can not handle the principles of life ... the Atlantean wise, they knew how to handle the vital principles contained in the endocrine glands, the Atlanteans had no doubt learned that the vibrations of the ether or better said the tattwas, enter in the endocrine glands or small Micro-laboratories that produce hormones, and never leave there because they become hormones. That was never ignored by the Atlantean wise, they knew how to handle those Universal tattwas or vibrations of ether; When they transplanted Ketabel glands, they did together with the management of tattwas, -manipulated Ether vibrations or principle of life. So the scientists at that time were vastly superior to modern endocrinologists who know nothing about these things, they ignore even the existence of Tattwas, because never have taken the trouble to study RAMA PRASAD or the doctor Krumm-Heller.

Atlantis were greatly advantaged. There was a wonderful Atlante University, I want to emphatically refer to the AKALDANA Society, a true University of sages; these studied in depth the law of eternal HEPTA FOR PARSHINOCK, the Law of Seven, learned to concentrate sunlight to make them penetrate certain cameras, they knew to transform the seven colors of the solar prism; one thing to see the seven prismatic colors and another thing to transform, get the positive; modern scientists have studied the seven primary colors of the solar spectrum, but have not taken positive of these seven colors; Atlantis sages knew how to get the positive to the seven colors of the solar prism; with this positive of seven colors they performed prodigies.

I remember the effect the case of two Chinese scholars who made experiments also Atlante style, with the seven colors of the solar spectrum, taking positive for example of the seven colors, they put for example; some opium to a colored beam, then watched as the opium was transformed into other substances; They put a piece of bamboo moistened with a particular substance color blue for example; positive solar spectrum and was seen as strongly dyed bamboo with blue; eg posed .; sound, such notes, eg .; Note C, D or MI in combination with certain color and saw the note altered the color, gave a completely different color. The seven rays were used in a positive way to make wonders in the continent Atlantis. Was studied in depth the law of eternal HEPTA PAHAPAR SHINOCK.

A sage who used goat's milk when mixed with pine resin on a marble plaque, saw that milk decomposes with the resin forming a substance with seven layers, that led him to study in Atlantis Eternal law HEPTA PARAPARSHINOC, the law of seven, with such knowledge then managed to make true wonders in the field of Science.

They were scientists and magicians at same time; created a robot and the robot endowed of an intelligent principle, a plant or an animal elemental to the times of spirit or soul of the robot, so that those robots, became true creatures who served their masters, their Messrs.

That atlante race existed before the present human race exists; They had huge cities. Unfortunately they degenerated as I said, they created the atomic bomb and even deadly weapons, and entire cities in the war, many of them became disrupted atomic holocausts. If we believe to be the greatest sages of the universe we are wrong, because there was a more powerful, more civilized, more cultured race behind us; in truth we are not with them but uncivilized and uneducated barbarians.

Too bad that Atlantis has degenerated; That's because all races are born, grow, develop and die.

In the decline of the Atlantean Race, horrible things happened; humanity degenerated into vices, in homosexuality, lesbianism, drugs, etc. etc, etc ...,it was abused of all in the time of the degeneration, and obviously that race had to be destroyed.

That had seven sub-races, nobody can deny, but eventually degenerated. Wise Society Akaldan made remarkable experiments were the first to use the Sphinx (which placed it in front of the University) Much later in time, when the sages of Akaldan Society realized that a major catastrophe is approaching, migrated a small continent named GRABONTZI, I mean the African continent that in principle was smaller. Later new lands emerged from the bottom of the seas and large Grabontzi made the continent, Africa today.

Members of the Akaldan Society stood at the beginning south of the African continent, then migrated to Cairona (now Cairo), the lands of Libya, the Nile and Egypt and there established their famous university and the Sphinx in front of it ; the claws of the lion Sphinx represents fire; the head of the Sphinx represents water; bull paws of the Sphinx represent the air element. How many are the virtues needed to reach self-realization of the Being? We must have the courage of a lion, the intelligence of man, the wings of the spirit and the tenacity of the bull;

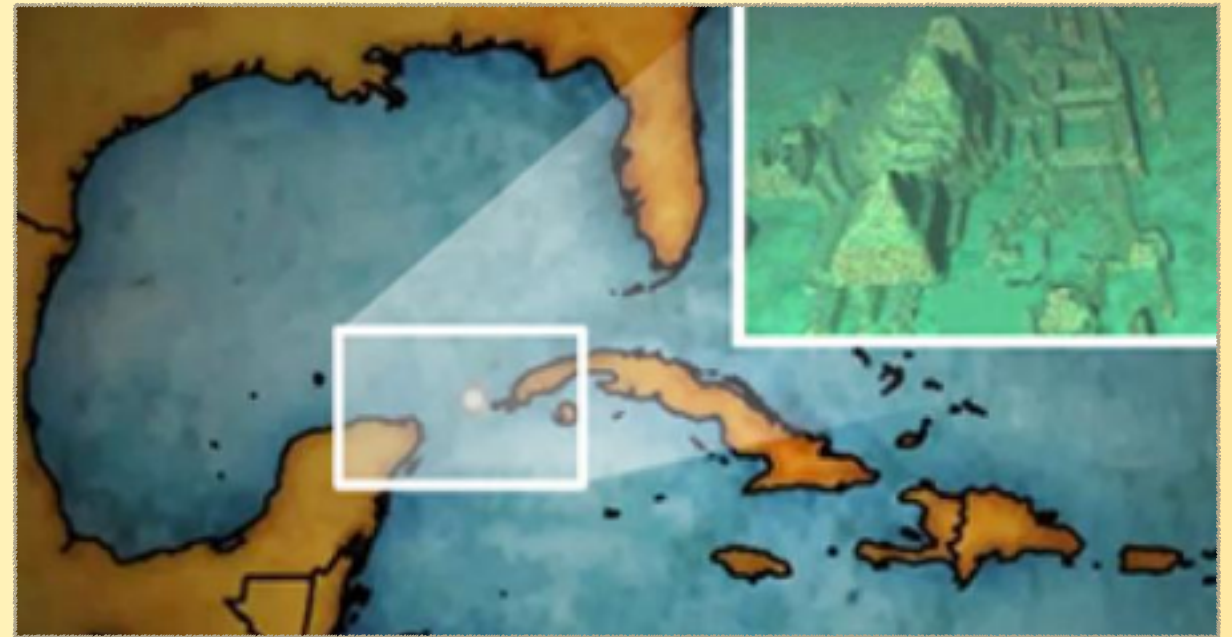

Only then you can reach self-realization of the Being. The Akaldan Cairona Company (Cairo Today) established a temple of astrology, then studied the Astros with the telescope as it does today, but with the sixth sense; when the pyramids, especially the Great Pyramid, so be certain channels tubes that go from the bottom, from the depths of an underground crypt, to the top of the pyramid are examined. Much has been thought or conjectured on such channels, but those were telescopes and the observatory was not up but down, at the very bottom of the crypt. There was a water container placed, in certain date it was known that such a star would be visible, certainly reflected in the water; adepts of Astrology in the water watching the Astro not only with the Physical faculties but Psychic too; instead of looking up they looked down, and there in the water with the sixth sense they used to study the stars.

The brothers of the Society Akaldan, great sages were very wise Astrologers; a child was born and immediately lifted her horoscope; horoscope, but not modern style, and sought not merely conventional horoscopes, not, this was different; the wise astrologers looked at the stars directly with procedures that today are ignored, they could read the horoscope of children; this is true, never failed in his prophecies and in his calculations. Children were married in the Cairona since their birth and they knew who was going to be his wife and espousing them; this does not mean they were going to live together from the beginning, because that would be absurd, but the girl knew who was to be her husband, and the man on his time was informed of who was to be his wife.

Accomplished most age they were united in marriage. citizens were oriented with mathematical precision under the direction of those Astrologers, in a trade, in an occupation; they knew what was born for every citizen, because every man has to do something; the important is to know what is he here for, and these wise Astrologers knew what it was for every creature born and they never failed, were wise Akaldan society. They went out-Atlantis before the earthquakes and tsunamis shook the continent; They came out on time, knowing too the approaching end.

Of course, when came the revolution of the axis of the earth when the poles became Ecuador, to plunge into the dark ocean floor, the Atlanteans unquestionably warned before. That's when the splendidly dressed crowds gathered at the temples; one was Ramu Temple; bejeweled women and men splendidly dressed, cried saying. "Ramu, save us" And Ramu answered them, "You perish with your women and your children, with your goods and your slaves, as I had warned."

"What's all this prayer? And as you will all die, also will come a new civilization that will arise in new lands -meaning our Race Aria, and they, perish too if they become like us"

You need to know that it is essential to give, to receive, to know what is received. Well, to no avail Ramu's words, the legends that smoke and flames drowned his last words ... Atlantis sank with all its millions of inhabitants. Today Palacios whole lie in the depths of the ocean and serve as interior seals and fish, whole towns have been submerged in the bottom of the Atlantic Ocean. He died this gigantic largest continent that America board from Canada to Chile, huge continent with a powerful civilization.

So we, gentlemen, we have nothing special; modern civilization is not the first, nor will it be the last; is not the highest nor be the most valuable ... until now has been the poorest, the most degenerate. Can we conquer the space now? We are now able to travel in atomic rockets to Mars, Mercury or Venus? It is planned well, you can have beautiful projects, but currently we do Already? On transplantation Already they transplanted brains? Already we are able to create intelligent robots with principles? None of that, we do not have nothing to presume to be the most powerful; and this is our vaunted modern civilization will perish; all this perverse civilization of vipers will not be stone on stone; Babylon the great, the mother of all harlots and abominations of the earth will be destroyed before a short time.

We feel very big with our supersonic aircraft, we are "wise men" of creation, but before long there will be nothing, absolutely nothing of this perverse civilization of vipers.

So before there was this race that populates the five continents, there was the Atlantean Race.

Descendants of Atlantis there are the Mayans, eg .; The Maya migrated to Tibet, and to Egypt, and to Central America. It seems incredible, but in Tibet Maya is still spoken; Maya language is a sacred ritual Tibetan language; remember that the Naga-Maya is similar. Jesus of Nazareth learned Maya in Tibet; Those words of Jesus: "Eli, Eli lamah Zabac Tani": "Lord, Lord, they say few-as you have glorified me." Others say "Lord, Lord, why have you forsaken me?". Well, that phrase is not Hebrew, so when the Jews heard that Christ said: "Eli, Ili, lamah Zabac Tani" they said themselves, but this calls for Elias, what language is this ?. They did not understand, they thought Elias called to come and save him. However, any indigenous Yucatan or Guatemala will translate to you the phrase.

"Eli. Eli lamah zabactani "because it is Mayan and not Hebrew, that is why they did not understand; and means according to the Maya," hidden in the predawn of your presence Me "is a phrase Mayan ritual.

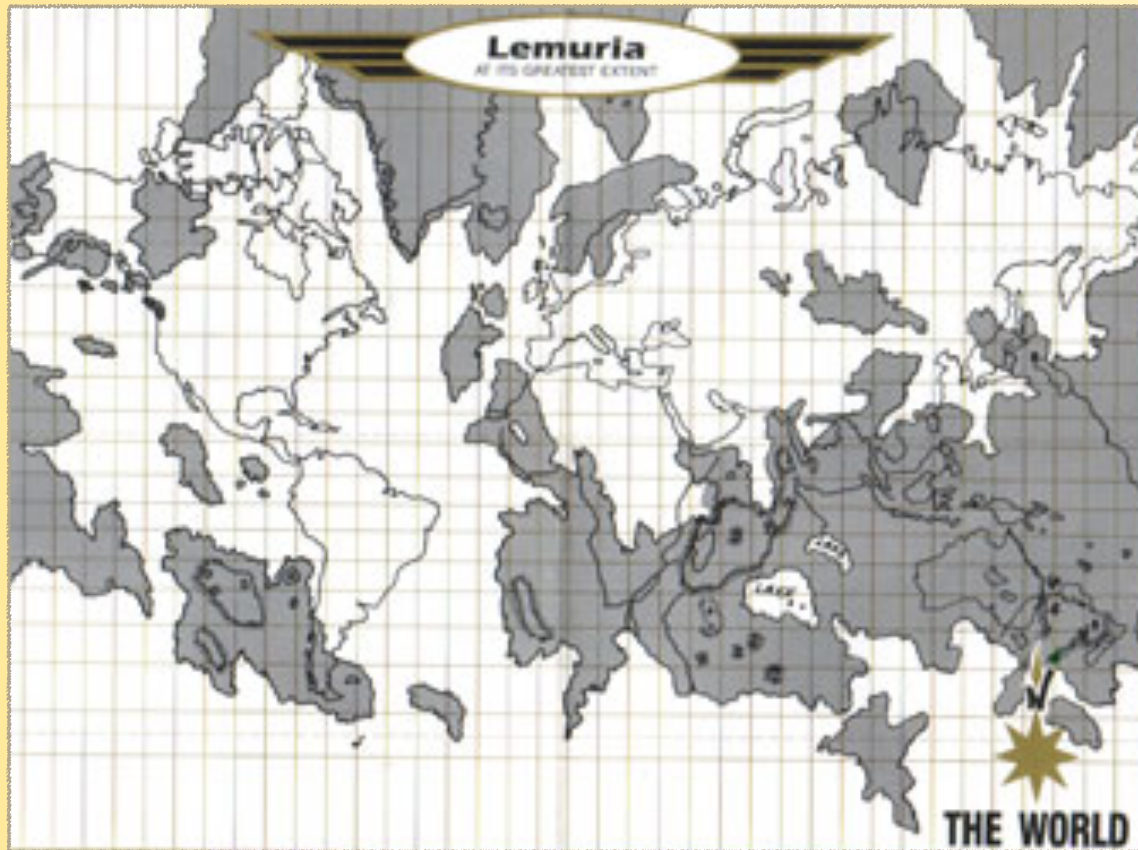

The Turanian were also survivors of Atlantis, unfortunately dedicated to black magic; They made it to Tibet, and also for the last straw, as the Aryans migrated chosen and ancient Persia. The great law was finally able to overcome them and were destroyed.

The Redskins are descendants of Atlantis, our ancestors, ancient Nahua, Zapotecs, Toltecs, etc., originally they came from Atlantis; almost all American tribes descended from Atlantis. So as you go along in these studies you will realize that the present race did not originate as assumed in the continent we inhabit.

The current race comes from another race, is Atlantis, not from apes, orangutans, as supposed seriously Mr. Darwin and his followers; down, I repeat, by the trunk Atlante, and that is shown.

But with all his mighty Atlantean civilization, do not turn down by the Atlantean continent. Atlantis with all their civilization was great, but they were descendants of the Atlanteans Lemurian.

Lemuria was a lot older than the Atlantean continent. Lemurs lived on a continent that stretched at the enraged sea, a huge continent that covered most of the Pacific area, larger than Atlantis, bigger than Europe and Asia. The Lemur civilization was obviously powerful; Lemurs was a race of gigantic Cy-clops; normally they could have heights of 4 to 6 meters; They were giants, was the race of giants.

Lemuria also had a powerful, huge, tremendous civilization. In Lemuria were huge Cyclopean cities surrounded by walls of stone and lava volcanoes rose; many people also lived in the camps as now. At first, in the pre Lemurian epoch we can tell you that there was a hermaphrodite or hermaphroditic lemuíricos race; the division of the opposite sex was in the Lemurian time post.

So we can divide into two halves Lemuria or the Lemurian race in two stages: First time, existence of hermaphrodites; second half, dividing the race into two sexes.

Let's look at the human race in principle as hermaphrodites, there were no separate beings, race was a hermaphrodite, then each individual sacred Lemur, was fully developed male and female sex organs. System reproduced by budding, that hermaphrodite-through-naturally eliminated from their ovaries menses at some time, a fully developed ovum or egg size may be a bird with its envelope or shell complete; this egg placed in a special environment within its interior, brewing a new creature, and finally when the creature came out of his shell and fed on the breast of the Father-Mother

Normally, in the lemurs and breed, sex did not exist, because each individual was complete by itself, reproduced by gemmation.

But it happened that when the post-Lemurian arrived it was clear that some children were born with a more accentuated sexual organ than another, some were born with the male organ more developed than the female, or vice versa. This process was becoming increasingly evident, until at last it came to children born unisexual, male or female; but this process of division into opposite sexes was performed through several thousands, perhaps a million years, it was not the overnight.

Therefore it says that Eve was taken from Adam's rib, is a symbol for the division into opposite sexes. When total division became into opposite sexes, then it was necessary to create cooperation; menses continued to exist in the female half in the female element, but since that egg came born infertile or sterile; Cooperation with the male for the fertilized egg outside is needed so we can reproduce the species.

The Elohim creators, Kumara, the people gathered to play at certain times of year. He was admired as these races are, these tribes, traveling from place to place, to assist in certain dates to the temples where they were to reproduce; sex ever took place outside the temple; and couples, man and woman in the cobbled courtyards of temples united sexually to create, under the direction of the Kumaras.

Humanity enjoyed the spiritual faculties, could see perfectly all the wonders of nature and the cosmos; its ability to vision allowed them to see half a HONTAPANDAS, ie half of all shades of universal color; we know a hontapandas consists of 5 million and a half of color shades. The heard was pervasive as to capture the symphonies of the universe. The smell was so acute that could well surpass the dogs today, it was a humanity that could use his alphabet of 51 vowels and 300 consonants articulated; I had not degenerated the power of verb, the word was spoken in the universal language, and had power over fire, on the air, on the water, on land; It was superior to our humanity. He also learned to use the energy of the atom and cosmic rays; with ships which had traveled through the infinite space, wonderful ships.

Any human being in Lemuria could live 12 to 15th centuries, that is, more than a thousand years. It was a strong, vigorous race, that could grab a huge stone and throw it away with great force, a stone that today we need to move it with a powerful crane, perhaps not with the crane we could; So the Lemurs were a vigorous race.

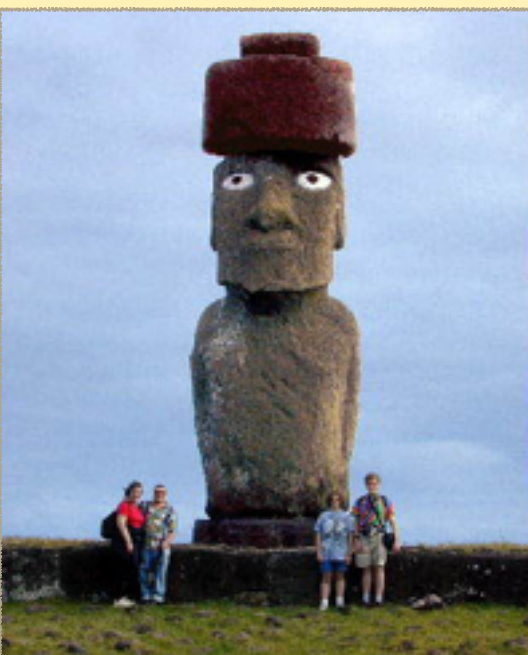

However, the origin of the Lemur race, was not in the Pacific as you think. The ancestors of Lemuria were in the Hyper-borean continent, as a species of horseshoe closes around the north and south pole, in the Hyperborean continent existed a powerful race of androgynous, but no longer androgynous hermaphrodite. It was not a race that could simply land on the earth's crust as lemurs, no, the Hyperboreans were different, floating in the atmosphere of those days. But they created their civilization.

Many have thought that the Hyperboreans never known war, but in truth there was a race of Hyperboreans who knew how to make war. Then the mineral, vegetable, animal and human kingdoms were mixed. There were mineral-plants, plant-mineral, animal-vegetaloides, vegetaloides-animals; as human beings were fully androgynous, they could extend their bodies to take enormous heights, or decline to take the state of mathematical point. They reproduced as corals reproduce and it was reproduced by budding We know that there are plants that can reproduce by budding, that when we sow one seed it grows and develops and well from those bodies could be born any outbreak then released and gave birth to a new creature, which fed of the Father-Mother

Very warlike race, tall, thin men, defended with large shields and wielding spears, guns and wore unknown fought with other tribes; Hyperboreans lived in a very different era of world history. They possessed fully developed spiritual vision, that is, had the outstanding pineal gland that allowed them to see the ultra of all things.

If we think a plant is the physical body of an elemental, then each plant has a soul, and the soul of each plant is a vegetable elemental. The hiperbóreos when watching a forest did not see as we see it, as a set of trees, or something like that, because for them the forest was a forest of giant with huge hands like Brigadeo, that with a hundred arms, They are moving from right to left; a forest was not something silent, if not listened here, there and everywhere the voices of the giant colossus, the voices of the elementals of the giant trees; it is another way of looking at things, not as we see now with this degenerate view, with this miserable view, we have seen only physical thing, if there was another view, was the view that allowed us to see the dimensions superiors of the nature and the cosmos.

It was a different, penetrating, omniscient view, they viewed the earth as it was and not as it apparently is not as we see it now. They had superior knowledge and we now possess the wisdom, all that we know now, only serves to structure a little intellect, and that's it.

The Hyperboreans were wiser, were governed by the superman, super men for all time and of all ages. They had kingdoms and civilizations, nor their racial origin was in the Hyperborean continent, they knew that their ancestors had left behind in time.

The ancestors of the Hyperboreans were protoplasmic men, polar men, men glaciers, which came to be the first race lived in the polar cap of the North , , men Glaciers, the protoplasmic men.

- One can only laugh at the protoplasm of the physics of Hegel and his followers. They believe that there came the protoplasm, the mollusk, the molluscoid, according to this unshakeable dogma of evolution accepted by Darwin and his followers.
- Not, the protoplasm has more seniority, nor is the protoplasm of those other authors found floating in the ocean, no. Consider the protoplasmic man, think of the protoplasmic race that existed in the sacred island, that island that was the first to exist and to be the last to cease to exist.

I refer to the Nordic land, the land of glass or told our ancestors of Anahuac to distant Thule, the continent that now is covered by ice of the North Pole.

The continent occupied at the time, the Equatorial region in the world at that time, because the position was different, the current Ecuador was the pole and the pole Ecuador were huge and deep forests; a giant Polar think civilization; the land was a magnificent, beautiful blue; the mountains were clear as crystal; the human race reproduced by that system, we still know in our body, blood, the cell division system.

We know that a cell divides into two, and begins the process of gestation of nine months; the germinal cell divides into two, the two divide into four and the four into eight, and so begins the gestation process, the process of cell division; that process still exists in our blood. Because there existed Why? Why men polar they reproduced in this process? At one time the body of the father-mother-divided in two, as the living cell divides, and thus reproduced through the process of cell division, when born a creature that was celebrated with great rejoicing; in temples, the elders met to work on the elements; esoteric symbols were used at that time differently, to tell us that life was going to materialize, to the physical.

The men of the polar era, could lengthen his body will shrink it or to turn it into a mathematical point; were androgynous, they could be launched as soon as the male or female to appear as beautiful ladies.

Their imagination was reflected in the starry sky, they talked with the gods of the dawn of Mahamanvantara, face to face; parlaban with the verb of Orto, that horn river of gold runs under the thick jungle of the sun. Then Uriel, great master of Venus been taught the arts and sciences. Uriel left a book written in runes, then studied the book that men of the polar era or primary era, the protoplasmic race.

All this is written in the Akashic records of Nature. If You develop pituitary and epiphysis, with that pair of glands concentrate properly, they can review all those old writings ... they can verify for themselves what I am saying now.

Where the Polar Race came from? What was its origin? They knew very well that had unfolded in the fourth coordinate that there had known the mysteries of the universe. The men of the fourth dimension they knew that had come from the fifth, and the men of the fifth coordinate, they knew that had come from the sixth coordinate, and the men of the sixth, they knew that had come from the seventh.

They never doubted that had developed from the original primitive germ, so the primitive elemental germ of the human race existed before the universe existed.

Those germs sleeping in the Chaos; Universe shook with the verb; when the creator of the first instant, verb set in motion all the atoms, those germs arose from chaos, made their first rally in the seventh dimension, crystallized and unwrapped a little more in the sixth, and then fifth and later in the fourth, and the day were such germs, and with some development on our planet earth, perched on a simple living protoplasm protoplasmic earth as it arrived.

So the human race comes from the Chaos, was developed into chaos, as chaos and chaos they left again; one day our country was a protoplasm; Later our land will be a cadaver, a new moon, after the seventh race, then life will unfold in the higher spheres and returns to chaos because came out of chaos and chaos will come back there.

So far, my talk tonight Those who want to ask something, they can do it with the most complete freedom.

QUESTIONS

QUESTION: What was the origin of the division of the sexes?

Samael Aun Weor: The division of the sexes had to be done because the Divinales entities, beings, needed, necessarily, have male or female apart vehicles for their own self-development and individual experience. That is the cause ...

...Any other question?...

Everyone can ask with the most complete freedom.

QUESTION: Being in this three-dimensional world can one go by the Fourth, know, or have some manifestation of the Fourth Dimension or Fourth Coordinate?

Samael Aun Weor: Last night, in fact, gave a lecture about it here; and we explain what is the Fourth Vertical and how to enter, consciously, with physical body in the fourth dimension. Said last night, it is possible that the physical body goes into the fourth vertical, I gave a key; We speak precisely about Harpócrates (or Harpócratis); said that if one focused on Harpócrates deeply when asleep; We said that if one egg blue imagine, and with his imagination felt like a pigeon within the egg imagined; said that if the concentration was deep and we invoked to Harpócratis, come a time when we would feel a kind of "itching" in the body, and that if we scratch we would lose the opportunity ; We are explaining all that we said here.

Then we clarify: What if at that moment it felt as inflated as "chubby" and he rose from his bed full of faith, penetrate with the help of Harpocrates (or Harpócratis) in the fourth vertical, where he could study the Mysteries Life and Death.

We talked extensively last night on the Jinn Science.

Today, I do not intend to talk much about the Jinn Science, since today we are talking exclusively about Gnostic Anthropology.

Any other has something to ask?

Question: Since the "Chaos" you mention, from there began to develop those Yoes?

Samael Aun Weor: The egos has nothing to do with chaos; they are a diabolical creation of us, from our mistakes, our shortcomings here and now. Chaos is chaos and the reason for Chaos is the same chaos. Chaos is sacred; there are latent germs of life, there are developed and operate from there and then descend, from dimension to dimension, to appear here in a concrete way.

That is all!

Any other question?

QUESTION: Yes, my brother, I want to ask, respectfully, if written documentation is there intelligent conference just heard from his lips, and if there is, in some form, which can carry up to our intellect ... where we can drink that source? Do you have some books on such documentation just said, at least in a way accessible to us? I do not know if I explain myself?

Samael Aun Weor: I wrote, ever, a "message of Christmas," I don't remember which is it ... Is there one? Look to see ...

ANSWER: was it ...?

Samael Aun Weor:: No, was the message of 1969 ...

Q: It was the 69?

Samael Aun Weor: 69, yes, where I talk about all that ... 68-69 ... If anyone asks, I extend to you the "Message" of 1968-69, where I wrote about all this.

However, other authors have elucidated a lot about issues Anthropogenesis. Most especially, I can recommend the second volume of "The Secret Doctrine", entitled "anthropogenesis," authored by Master Helena Blavatsky Petronila. Also Rudolf Steiner, for example, in his "TREATY OF OCCULT SCIENCE" gives much light on the matter.

I can talk to you about this, largely due to the concrete fact that what I am explaining, I've lived. So I need not study to speak; I have lived, and I have not expanded the whole issue today because we would take all night and would not manage to finish or "Arabian Nights" I would have just explain to you the whole development of this universe that emerged from Chaos. In any case, what I lived and what I know from direct experience.

Do any of you have anything else to say, I ask? Let's see...

QUESTION: You talk a lot of "Chaos" and "Cosmos" There is much difference between them ?, because "Chaos" is understood as clutter and "Cosmos" as the order; then I am ... with that concern?

Samael Aun Weor: Chaos out the COSMOS. Undoubtedly, through the Law of Three, that is, through the Holy Triamazikamno, you can make creations of new units. When Positive Force, Negative and Neutral affect all at some point, a Creation is performed.

It would not be possible to create any new Cosmic Unity, without the combination of these three forces that are, in themselves, the Holy Triamazikamno. These three forces are: Holy Affirmation, the Holy Negation, Holy Conciliation. But it is one thing to create and organize something else. You can create, but if there is no organization, what would be the creation?.

For a COSMOS (which means, incidentally, "order of worlds") emerges into existence, we need another law. I want to refer emphatically to the law of eternal heptaparaparshinock, ie, the SEVEN LAW. By Act of Santo Triamazikamno creation is done, but by the Law of Seven organizing what has been created as a Cosmos is made.

So our Solar System exists thanks to two laws: first, the Holy Triamazikamno; second, the Eternal heptaparaparshinock. Thanks to these two laws exist, currently, our solar system and our planet Earth.

Chaos arose therefore a Cosmos; Chaos all Cosmos arise. After Darkness, Light goes ...

Any other questions? ... Well, as I hear here, as there are no more questions, we will end this talk.

Inverential Peace! ...
